For Kiddies
—and Grown-ups too—
are, Clean, Wholesome Candies Made Fresh for Holiday Eating

In accordance with our usual custom, when we have a reduction in candy we pass the good tidings on to our customers.

We have just received word that our best chocolates will be 35 cents a pound instead of 50, and our mixtures will be 25 cents instead of 35 cents a pound.

DO NOT FORGET WE ARE HEADQUARTERS FOR THE BEST AND PUREST CANDY THAT CAN BE BOUGHT FOR THE MONEY IN CAROLINE COUNTY.

We will have a large line of the best fruits and nuts which will be in next week at rock bottom prices.

We have our usual line of toys for the little ones at prices so much within your reach that every child's heart should be made happy at this, the happiest time of all the year.

We have not forgotten father or mother or the grandparents or aunt or uncle, but have something appropriate for all at the right prices.

Country produce taken in trade. Highest cash prices paid for eggs.

be joined there on December 23 by her husband.

Messrs. Hiram Longaker and H. E. Kinder are in Philadelphia attending a canners' convention.

Mr. Leslie Edington, who left this fall for Florida to engage in work there, has returned to Federalsburg, which he prefers to the southern state.

Mr. Paul Noble, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Noble near town, is home on 30 days' leave from the Navy in which he has just re-enlisted after two years' service. Mr. Noble has the distinction of being on the "Mayflower," the president's private yacht, manned by the U. S. Navy, where he serves as electrician.

Friends here of Rev. T. E. Terry, a former pastor of the M. E. Church, are grealy grieved to learn that he is a patient at the Methodist Hospital, Philadelphia. Mrs. Terry is also ill at their home in Bridgeville, Del.

CHARLES JOHNSON

Mr. Charles Johnson, o young farmer living near here, died at his home on Tuesday morning of this week, after an extended illness of tuberculosis.

Mr. Johnson, who was the son of Mr. Thos. Johnson, of this town, leaves a widow and several children. Mr. James Johnson, a brother, and Mrs. Clinton Poole, a sister, both of this town, and a sister living elsewhere also survive.

Funeral services were held today, Thursday.

The minstrel show from Seaford, which entertained here in the Opera House Tuesday night, pleased a large audience, who enjoyed the many specialties, novel and comic, introduced. Among these was the clog dancing so expertly done as to rival any such professional performances. The Messrs. Culver and Shipley won great applause with their solo work, as did Mr. Spence Le Cates. The quartette and quintette numbers were extremely pleasing also. On the whole, the minstrel was of high order.

The bazaar held by the ladies of the M. P. Church last Friday and Saturday nights proved attractive to the Christmas shoppers in its offerings as evidenced by the financial returns. $200 was cleared aside from a valuable picture painted and donated by Mr. C. M. Walker, which is being sold through votes secured by two popular young ladies.

Community Christmas Tree plans are progressing favorably. Rehearsals of the carols have been taking place this week, two on Sunday evening at the respective churches and one Tuesday evening at the M. P. Church, all directed by Mr. H. W. Davis, aided by a large musical committee. A grandstand for singers has already been placed on the site of Bank Street near the corner of Main.

Two new members have been added to the Federalsburg band, Mr. R. E. Willis and Mr. H. E. Schwab. A junior band, conducted by Mr. Alex Williams, has recently been organized, also, giving the musically-inclined youths of the town the opportunity to learn the rudiments of the art of trumpetting.

Have The American Union make for you a handsomely printed supply of Letterheads and Envelopes on Worthmore Bond, put up in cabinet style for desk.

There are still plenty of old-fashioned folks who think the other man's politics is the devil's religion.

If you are ine who thinks "every man has his price," it is certain you have yours.

If your calling card supply is low, better replenish it before Xmas. Are they engraved or printed? We do both. The American Union.
