

Gentlemen:-

I beg, respectfully, to forward, herewith, report of Cap't Joseph McGovern, Detective Bureau, in respect to the apprehension and safe return to Baltimore of Frank and Herminia John, charged with larceny, receiving stolen goods and conspiracy, by Detectives Peter B. Bradley and Thomas W. Quirk.

In my judgment Detectives Bradley and Quirk displayed most excellent detective ability in securing the release of these prisoners for the purpose of bringing them back to Baltimore to stand trial for the crime with which they are charged, and I therefore, respectfully, concur in the recommendation of Cap't McGovern, that both Detectives Bradley and Quirk be commended by your Honorable Body.

Very respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."

The recommendation of the Marshal was approved, and it was ordered that Detectives Peter B. Bradley and Thomas W. Quirk be brought before the Board on Friday next, August 9th., to receive the Board's commendation.

Transfer.

Upon the recommendation of Captain Harvey P. Morheiser, Western District, approved by the Marshal, it was ordered that Patrolman John C. Rudel be transferred from Division C., to Division A., vice Patrolman William A. Cole, dismissed; said transfer to take effect at once.

Patrolman Alonzo W. Lockwood.
Northeastern District.

The Marshal submitted report, as follows:-

"Baltimore, Md., August 5th., 1912.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners.

Gentlemen:-

I am forwarding herewith, communication, signed "Mr. Kelly", in which it is alleged that one Alonzo W. Lockwood,
