

In returning, herewith, communication in respect to alleged disorderly conduct at the saloon of one E. Robins, Webster street and Fort avenue, especially on Saturday nights, beg to say that I referred this matter to Captain Charles M. Cole, Southern District, for investigation, and he reports, as follows, (see report attached).

It would appear from this report that there was no evidence of any disorder at this place on Saturday night last. Captain Cole has been instructed, however, to keep this place under surveillance.

Very respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."

The Secretary was directed to transmit copy of the foregoing report to the Board of Liquor License Commissioners for its information. (See Exhibit No. 4078.)

Saloons.

Thomas E. McDonald, 125 W. West st.,

Gerald Murphy, 135 W. Cross street.

Report, as follows, was received, read and ordered filed:-

"Baltimore, Md., August 5th., 1912.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners.

Gentlemen:-

In returning, herewith, communication from the Liquor License Commissioners, in respect to violations of law, on Sundays, at the following named saloons, viz:

William McCracken, 11 W. Cross st.,
Thomas E. McDonald, 125 W. West st.,
Gerald Murphy, 135 W. Cross street.

In the case of McCracken, I detailed Patrolmen Klingenberg and Panuska to give this place especial attention on Sunday, August 4th., 1912, and they report that they were unable to find that the law was in any manner being violated by the sale of liquor.

In the case of McDonald and Murphy it will be noted from the reports made by Captain Charles M. Cole, Southern District, that the officers detailed by him to look after these places,
