

icating liquors and doing business openly on Sunday.

The Board of Liquor License Commissioners on July 31, 1912 ordered that the said saloon of Frederick Dorsch be closed and the license suspended.

If your Department is in possession of any information concerning the applicant George G. Nollmeyer, the Board of Liquor License Commissioners would appreciate it very much if you would report the same.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN F. LANGHEIMER, Chief Clerk."

It was ordered that letter, as above, be referred to the Marshal for careful and thorough investigation and report; that pains be taken to ascertain if George G. Nollmeyer has any connection with Dorsch.

---

J. Frank Kelly.

In the matter of J. Frank Kelly, in whose case the Board petitioned the Liquor License Commissioners, as referred to in the proceedings of July 29, 1912, a communication, as follows, was received, read and ordered filed, see Exhibit No. 4046 and proceedings of July 26, 1912:

"Baltimore, August 8, 1912.

To The Honorable Board of Police Commissioners, Court House, City.

Gentlemen:-

In reference to the complaint of violation of the Liquor License Law in the saloon of J. Frank Kelly, 827 Raborg st., I beg to advise you that the Board after a careful consideration revoked the temporary permit which was granted to J. Frank Kelly and ordered that said saloon is to be closed after August 26, 1912.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN F. LANGHEIMER, Chief Clerk."

---

Saloon.

John A. Vain, 1920 Fairmount avenue.

Communication, as follows, was received, read and ordered