

Saloon.Louis Karaulis, - 218 S. Eutaw street.

Report, as follows, submitted by the Marshal, was received and it was ordered that a copy thereof, as well as a copy of the report made to the Marshal by Captain Harvey P. Morheiser on the same subject, be transmitted to the Board of Liquor License Commissioners, as in the case of the saloons of Joseph Kaluska and John Hythe, as referred to in the proceedings of August 7, 1912:

"Baltimore, Md., August 7th., 1912.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners.

Gentlemen:-

I beg, respectfully, to forward, herewith, report of Cap't H.P. Morheiser, Western District, in respect to apparent violations of law at the saloon of one Louis Karaulis, 218 S. Eutaw street.

I am entirely in accord with the views as expressed by Captain Morheiser that the stained glass window, or any other obstruction, be removed from the front window in order to give an unobstructive view into the bar-room proper, and I would therefore respectfully recommend that your Honorable Body take up this matter with the Board of Liquor License Commissioners.

Very respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."

(See Exhibit No. 4091.)

---

Docket- Magistrates.

Communication, as follows, was received:-

"Brooklyn, Md., August 9, 1912.

The Honorable Board of Police Commissioners.

Baltimore, Md.

Gentlemen:-

I am very desirous of obtaining one of your Police Justice Dockets. My duties as Police Justice of Brooklyn, Md., Fifth District, A.A.Co., have been quite laborious at the Brooklyn Station, and therefore my desire is to lighten