Let Them Hear Your Voice

IN cities and towns not far away you have friends whom you seldom see. You have little time for writing, or perhaps don't like to write letters. Why not let them hear your voice?

When you have business or social affairs to discuss with out-of-town friends, use the telephone. You can have an enjoyable chat and have matters settled in a few minutes. There's none of the delay sometimes experienced in getting letters off and delivered on time.

You can send your voice a good many miles for a dollar. Why not do it?

Ask the operator for rates to any place. See the front part of your telephone directory for information as to kinds of out-of-town calls.

Pull The Blind For a Shine in New York

Short skirts in New York resulted in a falling-off of business for shoe shining stands catering to women trade until an inventive "Knight of the Brush" equipped his stand with a common window shade as is shown here. Now milady has her shoes shined with a mind quite at ease.

Absent Organs

Queer things happen to children, according to the notes their parents send to the teachers. Here are a few examples:

"Dear Miss: Mary's stomach was off and I kept her home for three day's."

"Dear Ma'am: Nellie was not well enough to go to school yesterday. Her head was very bad all day, but it worked off during the night."—Boston Transcript.

TOMATO INDUSTRY HANGS IN BALANCE—WILL IT HOLD?

A determined effort to save the valuable tomato growing industry of Maryland through some form of practical co-operative agreement between growers and canners is to be made in a forthcoming meeting of committees representing the Maryland Agricultural Society and the Tri-State Canners' Association.

This announcement was made by D. G. Harry, president of the Maryland Agricultural Society, in making known the personnel of the committee to represent that organization and the interests of the growers. A similar committee is to be appointed by William Silver, of Aberdeen, president of the Tri-State Canners' Association, and the two groups will hold their first meeting at an early date.

J. E. Patten, Dorchester county; A. G. Ensor, Harford County; and C. C. Gelder, Somerset County, will compose the Growers' committee.—Extension Service Bulletin.

His Aliment Diagnosed

"Water," yelled the fervent orator. "Aqua, aqua, aqua pura. The greatest gift of nature to thirsty man. What would the ocean be without water? Answer me that? What—"

That question had never struck his audience before. They pondered in silence.

"Water," cried the orator again. "What would Niagara Falls be without water?"

Another stupendous question. His audience stirred restlessly; his arguments were too much for them.

"Of what use," screamed the speaker, "would our bathtubs be without clean, beautiful water?"

As one man the audience turned and left the hall, perhaps to consider the orator's brainy conundrums. But one ignorant fellow said to another:

"That man has water on the brain." — Pittsburgh Chronicle-Dispatch.

VERNON

We are glad that Mrs. Jesse Ward is able to get around now from having dropped a stick of wood on her foot which disabled her for awhile.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Wesley Ross were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Ross at a 6 o'clock dinner at which all the delicacies of the season were in evidence.

PAT HACKETT

The funeral of Pat Hackett, of Burrsville, was held at Wesley M. E. Church on Wednesday and interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. The deceased died of heart trouble and was 54 years old.

Mrs. Grace Forrest, wife of the M. E. minister, spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Ross.

The Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Dover, has been the guest of Mr. David Regan and J. L. Hopkins and families. Mr. Campbell is a born preacher and his congregation is greatly pleased with him. All wish to have him returned.

Mrs. McCloskey is spending some time with Mrs. Alfred Raughley, Sr., nursing her back to health.

Nellie Marie Turner, of Harrington, is spending several weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ross.

Anstine Stalford is talking of turning from merchant to farmer. His new storehouse is up-to-date and commodious, quite an improvement over the old.

Mr. Joseph B. Todd is very ill. Drs. Day and Chipman have been in attendance. He and his family are greatly liked and large crowds of the neighborhood or community visit him.

All were invited to the P. T. A. of Prospect Friday evening. A very interesting program was rendered.

Miss Rebecca Todd, of Chester, has returned after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Todd.

Mr. R. Wesley Ross is building and painting a garage.

A social will be held by the Mite Society of the M. P. Church at Porter's Hall on the evening of St. Patrick's Day, to which all are invited. A fine time is anticipated.

Mr. Horace Todd and two children, the latter having been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Todd for several months, have returned to their home in Chester.

All the teachers were requested to be present at the Kent County Teachers' Association held at Dover Saturday.

The Mite Society will meet at the home of T. W. Porter in the interest of the Union Church.

Mrs. Alice H. Ross attended the Teachers' Association luncheon at Dover and spent the week end with Mrs. Berry of Felton.

SMITHVILLE

On Friday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Davis entertained a number of friends at rook. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Alford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Liden, Mr. and Mrs. Orland Clawson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams and son, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Williamson. At a late hour refreshments were served, then all made their return home before the rain.

Mr. Edward Favinger is suffering with a broken arm, received while cranking his flivver.

Mr. Enos Williams while sawing wood for Mr. John Todd got one of his fingers sawed off last week.

Mrs. J. M. Lord is quite improved after some weeks' suffering with the rheumatism.

Mrs. Ella Larymore and children and Miss Elsie Trice and Mr. Lawrence Smith were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Williamson Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrett Lord were the guests of the latter's parents Sunday.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION OF THE NEW YORK WORLD
In 1922 and 1923

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly. No other Newspaper in the world gives so much at so low a price.

The whole world is being made over and the United States is taking the lead in the work. This year particularly history will be made, and every American citizen will be deeply interested. No other newspaper is better equipped to give the news of the word at the time it is news than the New York World.

The Thrice-a-Week edition of The World is the greatest example of comprehensive journalism in America. It will keep you as thoroughly informed as a daily, which would cost five or six times as much. It is a unique newspaper, published three times a week, for $1 a year. This is the regular subscription price and it pays for 156 newspapers.

We offer this unequalled newspaper and

The American Union

together for one year for $1.75.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.00.

Nothing saddens an older person like seeing two young people marry who, he thinks, are bound to make a failure, and few things irritate him so much as to find out later that they haven't.

Ben Franklin liked books.

Within their covers he found wisdom—the wisdom which when put into practice, earned for him a reputation as a great American.

We observed his birthday on January 17—it having been two hundred and sixteen years since his birth at Boston.

Franklin's philosophy may be summed up in one word—THRIFT.

And the bank book is text book in the study of thrift. It was the book which Franklin heeded most because there, in black and white, was the result of his endeavors.

"Spend less than you make if you would succeed,"—said Franklin's famed "Poor Richard."
