Why Not Be Sure?

CONFUSION is frequently caused by depending too much on others for prompt and accurate delivery of business and social messages.

There's one way to be sure that your message has been received as you meant it—by telephone.

Telephone talks make business more certain. There's no delay—no worry. Distance makes no difference.

The rates on all classes of calls are reasonable. There are special reduced evening and night rates on station-to-station calls. The pages in the front part of your directory give full information.

Why not do away with uncertainty and delay by using the telephone?

The operator will gladly give you the rates to any point.

A Convincing Warning for Auto Spee

At a railroad crossing in Texas has been erected a unique "Stop—Look—Listen" warning, as shown above. Perched high on its specially constructed pedestal, the wreck of an auto, with which some foolish driver once tried to beat a train to a crossing, presents a convincing argument for care and caution.

TRANSIT COMPANY TO BEGIN SCHEDULE IN APRIL

The Shore Transit Company announces that within the next few days arrangements will be completed for the delivery of ten transportation units, in addition to the one recently on exhibition in Federalsburg and other towns on the schedule of the Companys lines. It is planned to have the entire twelve units in operation sometime in April, and to start the full schedule, as outlined sometime ago, at once, instead of of begining with a few busses, and adding to them from time to time until the twelve contemplated are ready. Every effort is being made to have the Company's transportation lines running as soon as possible, and it is believed that, barring delays in delivery of the units this will be accomplished sometime in the month of April.

PROSPECT FOR BIG PEACH CROP GOOD

With mild but not too warm weather during the next four weeks, all present orchard signs indicate that Deleware fruit growers next summer will harvest the biggest crop on record. Fifteen peach buds to a foot of twig is said to be the average set in well kept orchards, which means the crop may be so heavy the growers will have to thin it out to get the best results.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION OF THE NEW YORK WORLD In 1922 and 1923

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly. No other Newspaper in the world gives so much at so low a price.

The whole world is being made over and the United States is taking the lead in the work. This year particularly history will be made, and every American citizen will be deeply interested. No other newspaper is better equipped to give the news of the word at the time it is news than the New York World.

The Thrice-a-Week edition of The World is the greatest example of comprehensive journalism in America. It will keep you as thoroughly informed as a daily, which would cost five or six times as much. It is a unique newspaper, published three times a week, for $1 a year. This is the regular subscription price and it pays for 156 newspapers.

We offer this unequalled newspaper and

The American Union

together for one year for $1.75.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.00.

There are men with the stature of a giant, the piercing eyes of the eagle and the square jaws of a ruler of men who don't have much more than a penny's worth of brains, but if they have that kind of appearance everybody will declare they are all brains.

What is there about an innocent telephone bell that makes the subscriber indignant when he hears it?

Ben Franklin liked books.

Within their covers he found wisdom—the wisdom which when put into practice, earned for him a reputation as a great American.

We observed his birthday on January 17—it having been two hundred and sixteen years since his birth at Boston.

Franklin's philosophy may be summed up in one word—THRIFT.

And the bank book is text book in the study of thrift. It was the book which Franklin heeded most because there, in black and white, was the result of his endeavors.

"Spend less than you make if you would succeed,"—said Franklin's famed "Poor Richard."
