CENTRAL

JAMES B. COLLISON

The funeral of Mr. James B. Collison, was held at Central M. E. Church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Rev. Mr. Betts. Interment was made in Wesley grave yard, where his wife was buried two years ago.

For many years Mr. Collison owned a small farm near Central and there raised a large family eight of whom survive.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wyatt and daughter spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Emil Sapp near Felton, Del.

An entertainment was given by Central school Friday evening, The house was filled and the exercises were enjoyed by all. Ice cream and cake were sold for the purpose of replacing stolen window blinds.

Mrs. F. C. Ramsdell had as her guests Sunday, Mr. H. Judson Ramsdell and family, of Harrington, Del., Mr. H. E. Ramsdell and family, Mr. Clarence Kerrn and family and Mr. Floyd Garey and family.

Identfied the Goat

Afere the Irishman had hung his caat on a fence and had gone to work, two Englishmen painted a goats head on the coat. Upon seeing it the Irishman asked: "Which one of yez wiped yer face on me coat?"

Too Much Suds in the Tank

Chile: "I hear Colgate and Williams had an intercollegiate swimming meet."

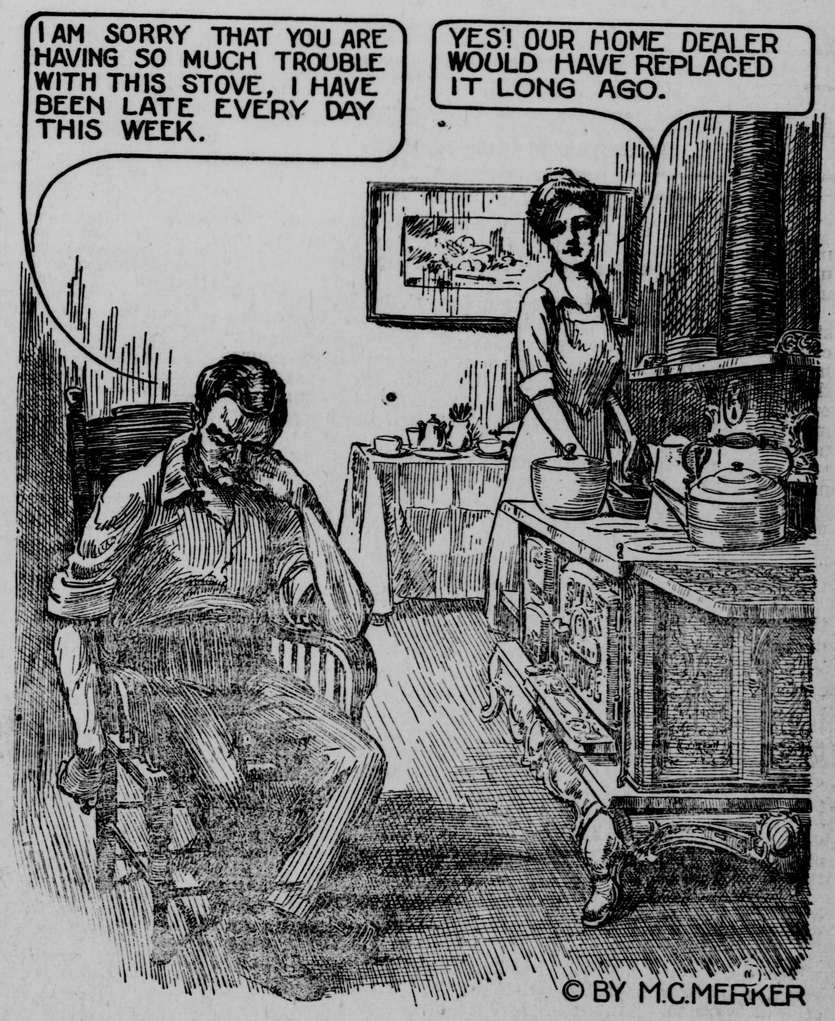
Bean: "Yes, there was so much foam in the water they had to call it off."—Brown Jug.

Before and After?

The nurses and students at a certain London hospital were rehearsing a Greek play—in English. They were to perform it at a concert in aid of their exchequer.

There was an elderly woman at the rehearsal. She seemed a little mystified.

Eventually she turned to the girl beside her and said in a puzzled voice: "Let me see, dear—Euripides—was he before Venizelos?"—Kansas Cty Star.



PRECAUTION IS BETTER THAN REPENTANCE

Promptness is one of the qualifications that all employers demand of their employees. A troublesome stove bought out of town very often is the cause of muc hdisappointment and discord at home, while on the other hand a stove bought in your home town comes "ready to use," must burn and must give satisfaction, or the home dealer will make it right.

MORAL—Keep the home fires burning.
