"Baltimore, Md., August 26th., 1912.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners.

Gentlemen:-

In connection with complaints received by your Honorable Body, as to the violation of Sunday Liquor Law in the Eastern Central and Southwestern Districts, beg to advise that special details were sent out Sunday, August 25th., 1912, to apprehend all violations of the law, and the districts report, except in the case of Regan's saloon, that there were no violations of law.

In the case of Regan, they were unable to gain an entrance, they report that talking could be heard and remained about the place for sometime in an effort to gain an entrance but were unsuccessful.

Respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."
