msa_s1894_14-3736 © Maryland State Archives

officers did anything wrong, I would recommend that the matter be filed.

Respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."

The Secretary was directed to communicate with Mr. Acton and say that from the reports before it, it appears to the Board that Patrolman Link was simply performing his duty at the time of his visit to the saloon in question, but if he, Mr. Acton, desires to personally come before the Board in relation to the matter the Board will see him on Tuesday morning next, at 9:30 o'clock. (See Exhibit No. 4130.)

Hackney Carriage Stand.

Upon the recommendation of Captain Harvey P. Morheiser, Western District, approved by the Marshal, permission was granted to J.L.B.Wilhide to stand sight-seeing automobile for hire on Howard street near Lexington, in front of the premises of Stewart & Co. (See papers filed "Hackney Carriages.")

Donation.

Report, as follows, was received, and the recommendation as therein contained, was approved:

"Baltimore, Md., August 29, 1912.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners.

Gentlemen:-

I attach hereto reports from Captain Joseph McGovern, Detective Bureau, and Detectives Day and Davis, in connection with the offer of Mr. Louis Applefield to present each of these detectives with a suit of clothes for their work in the recovery of cloth, etc., stolen from Mr. Applefield.

I would respectfully recommend that Detectives Davis & Day be allowed to accept these suits.

Respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."