GIRLS CLUBS WILL HOLD ENCAMPMENT

Will Go to Greens Point Rest for Part of Week

Reports show last summer's camp such an enjoyable success that a second trial is worth while, especially when the unanimous cry from the girls is "Aren't we going to have a camp this year?" So from this murmur comes the definite answer of "Yes, we are." The camp dates are July 11, 12, 13 and 14.

To give variety and broaden the field of knowledge, Dorchester and Caroline counties have decided to bunk together on the camp grounds at Green's Point Rest, Dorchester county. We only hope that the enjoyment will prove mutual and that the hostess girls will learn from us as much as we expect to glean from them.

This place was selected mainly because it is considered safe for children and happens to have some conveniences conducive to camp pleasures without an extra attached fee. Among them are: a three story screened house pavilion with shady grove, an ever-flowing well, and a safe bathing place. The greatest hindrance is the uncertainty of means of transportation. Several have already expressed their longing desire with "I sure would like to go, but I ain't got no way." If a few big-hearted, public-spirited friends would lend their cars, their kindness will be more than appreciated. We expect at least one sponsor for each club.

The details concerning the camp plans and the requirements are told in the following program for each day's events::

The aims of the camp are: To give members an opportunity for an outdoor outing, to add "spice and pep" to Club work; to promote co-operation and leadership, to aid in carrying out the 4 H object of developing head, hand, heart and health; to broaden the vision of the girls by contact with others.

Camp officials for the week are visiting supervisor, Miss B. Knight, district agent, College Park; general supervisors, Miss E. VanScoter and Miss Emily Kellogg, county Home Demonstration agents; health inspector, Dorchester county's nurse; food supervisor, Mrs. Spence or substitute; sponsors, one for each club.

DR. CADMAN'S LECTURE IS POSTPONED

The lecture by the Rev. Mr. S. Parkes Cadman, D. D., of Brooklyn, N. Y., which was scheduled for last evening, was postponed until next Wednesday night, July 5th, upon receipt of a telegram stating that an unexpected press of church duties, in the absence of his assistant, required his presence in Brooklyn. As far as the weather is concerned, this postponement was agreeable, for many people would not have ventured out in the severe storm of last evening.

Dr. Cadman is considered one of the ablest ministers and lecturers in the United States. Those Dentonians who have heard him speak of him in terms of highest praise. If you have not already bought your ticket do so at once, lest you forget it until too late, and lose thereby a rare treat. The subject of the lecture is "The Mission of Our Republic."

Another thing—this lecture is given under the auspices of the Denton Volunteer Fire Company. This organization, only a few weeks old, has been started not for the benefit of the members, and not for fun. Its business is to protect you in time of fire. Therefore you should support these men in their endeavor to raise money to procure proper equipment. Even were the lecture only medium rate, it would be only just for the people of Denton to support the fire company. But this lecturer is one of the best in the country; his church in Brooklyn (one of the largest in the city) is crowded to the doors every service; his fame is national and international. Then, for your own good, patronize this attempt of the fire company to raise funds.

Remember, Wednesday night, July 5, 8 p. m., Palace Theatre—Dr. S. Parkes Cadman—"The Mission of Our Republic"—Benefit of Denton Volunteer Fire Company.

LOCAL MAN WINS VACATION TRIP REWARD FOR RECORD

Mr. James O. Wright, the local representative of the R. L. Dollings Company, is to leave on June 30th for a vacation trip to Saratoga Springs, N. Y. The trip comes as a reward of merit from the company for the successful record made by Mr. Wright in the past six months.

Mr. Wright's trip will include a day in Philadelphia, a day of sightseeing in New York and a night's cruise up the Hudson River from New York to Albany. At Saratoga Springs, N. Y., arrangements have been made for a three-day's session of the company's representatives, that will combine both pleasure and business. One of the features of the session will be a day's cruise on Lake George, the most beautiful of American lakes.

Some three hundred representatives, together with the wives of many of them, will make the trip. The large financial interests of the R. L. Dollings Company are now spread over six states and delegations from each state will be present, representing the men whose records have warranted the trip.

Mr. Wright is well known here and has been of such great service to the investing public that we are happy in his having earned such a vacation. We wish him a safe journey and know that he will return refreshed and enthused for his increasing service and responsibility to our home folks.

THE FOURTH OF JULY

To the sages who spoke, to the heroes who bled,
To the day and the deed, strike the harpstrings of glory!
Let the song of the ransomed remember the dead,
And the tongue of the eloquent hallow the story!
O'er the bones of the bold
Be the story long told,
And on fame's golden tablets their triumphs enrolled,
Who on freedom's green hills freedom's banner unfurled,
And the beacon-fire raised that gave light to the world!

They are gone—mighty men!—and they sleep in their fame:
Shall we forget them? Oh, never! no, never!
Let our sons learn from us to embalm each great name,
And the anthem send down—"Independence forever!"
Wake, wake, heart and tongue!
Keep the theme ever young;
Let their deeds thru the long line of ages be sung,
Who on freedom's green hills freedom's banner unfurled,
And the beacon-fire raised that gave light to the world!

—Benj. Franklin.

Why Not Government Clerks?

The administration is asking that federal employees at Washington work eigh hours a day instead of seven and one half hours. What is good for the labiring man will not hurt the desk laborers in the capital. And it is a step in the direction of economy in government service.

HIGNUTTS PARK IS DRAWING BIG CROWDS

Hignutts Park surely has been put on the map. Every day new parties are seen there, while many of those who were there the first day it was opened are back daily.

The Williston Development Company is keeping the park open every day including Sunday and the crowds are enjoying the cool breezes that blow along the river these warm days.

Every evening dancing is enjoyed. Tuesday and Thursday nights Benny's Talbot Five orchestra, of Easton, is in charge of the music, and oh, how Benny has been spreading himself. On all other nights, dancing is enjoyed to the tune of a player piano.

Picnic parties are taking kindly to this spot and many are seen there every day. Next Tuesday will probably be a gala day for all concerned as there will no doubt be a record breaking crowd at this new pleasure resort.

The management has secured the service of Mr. William E. Maloney as special officer to maintain order at the party, he having been sworn in on Tuesday as a deputy sheriff.

Monday evening the Denton Base Ball team will hold a benefit dance at the park.

VERNON MOTORISTS IN A BAD ACCIDENT

What threatened to be a serious accident happened on Sunday afternoon on the narrow turn of the road leading from Thomas School, when the Buick touring car of George Ross went over into the deep ditch opposite Harry Radling's house. Fortunately no one was seriously hurt, and not a great deal of damage was done to the car. It was operated by R. Wesley Ross, who also has a Buick car and understandh runnig one well, but the steering wheel was loose and hence the car became unmanageable. It was heavily loaded with the families of both men, besides Irene and Nellie Marie Turner. The occupants were on their way to the Children's Day service at Manship's church, after having visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ross of Farmington, attended the Children's Day service at Bethel M. P. Church and partaken of luncheon at the home of George Ross. Practically the entire neighborhood turned out to assist and with the help of a block and fall from the home of Norman Wix, succeeded in getting the car on its way again. Mr. Hall, who is an expert in the automobile business in Ohio and who was visiting at the home of the Rawdings, rendered valuable assistance. The motorists were lavish in their thanks and appreciation to all.

Permits Issued

Permission was granted Tuesday by the Board of Education to the Denton Volunteer Fire Company and Denton Community Club to hold their first annual carnival on the school grounds, corner of 6th and Franklin streets and also the use of the basement of the high school building for the purpose of storage during the day, with the understanding that the property will be well taken care of. This site is especially desired by the carnival committee in order that they may hold a street dance on 6th street each evening during the carnival, between the hours of 10 and 11 p. m.

Permission was also granted to the ministerial association of Ridgely for the use of the school building and grounds for the daily vacation Bible school to be held there July 10-21.

Burglars? No, Only a False Alarm

The newly installed burglar alarm installed recently on the Bank of Goldsboro awoke the citizens of that village Monday night about midnight with its clamorous ringing. All male citizens secured their trusty guns from the corner and started for the bank.

When the crowd had assembled, no burglar could be found. Officers of the bank, however, found that the vault had not been closely properly and the combination did not work, so the alarm called the man to his duty and then permitted the citizens to again retire.

MISS EVELYN HARRIS BECOMES A BRIDE

Weds Mr. C. E. Glass at Out-of-Door Ceremony in Preston Last Saturday

250 GUESTS ATTENDED

With a picturesque out-of-door setting amid the soft afterglow of the waning sun, the wedding last Saturday, June 24, of Miss Evelyn Harris and Mr. Clarence Edward Glass, of New York, proved one of unusual interest and beauty.

The marriage took place on the lawn of the country home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Harris, where about two hundred and fifty friends and relatives, including a number from Baltimore, Philadelphia, Brooklyn and New York, had gathered to witness the ceremony at sunset.

In the shade of a large tree were placed huge baskets of flowers, and to this improvised altar came the wedding procession from the house, while from within violin and piano harmoniously blended in the wedding march from "Lohengrin." Miss Myrtle Messick, of Federalsburg, played the march with Mr. Jack Scheropity of New York accompanying on the violin. Just prior to this DeKoven's "O Promise Me" was sung by Miss Elizabeth Willoughby, of Federalsburg.

Leading the procession and making the bride's path rosy with strewn flowers, came two dainty, diminutive flower girls, little Henrietta Blades and Doris Colburt of Preston, gowned in attractive white frocks and carrying baskets of sweet peas. The groomsmen, Messrs. Howard Harris, the bride's brother, and Robert Jefferson, of Federalsburg, came next, followed by the two bride's maids, walking singly—Misses Anne Wright, of Preston and Alice Jones of Philadelphia. The former was gowned in honeydew georgette crepe, carrying an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds and blue bachelor's buttons; the latter wore orchid Canton crepe and carried vari-colored sweet peas. Mrs. J. O. Arthur, of Bridgeton, N. J., as matron of honor, looked attractive in a gown of pale green georgette combined with lace and carrying a huge bouquet of sweet peas and pink snapdragons.

The bride, approaching with her father, who gave her in marriage, looked especially attractive in her wedding gown of white satin. With lace sleeves and panniers, and girdled with a pearl rope, it was charming in its simplicity and becomingness. A tulle veil was simply arranged with valley lilies, while a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies completed the lovely costume.

The groom and his best man, Mr. Norman Salvador, of Philadelphia, met the wedding party at the altar, all the masculine members of the party being attired in formal evening dress.

The marriage, performed by the Rev. Mr. J. P. Outten, of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Preston, just at sunset, was most impressive, the ring ceremony being used.

After the marriage an informal reception was held on the lawn and porch, the bride before leaving her friends tossig her lovely bouquet in their midst for the next lucky maiden to capture. The guests inscribed their names in the wedding record, afterward being served with refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Glass, accompanied by a number of the wedding party, later motored to Bridgeville where they left on a late express for Philadelphia, going thence to Atlantic City for the week end. From there they went to Boston by sea for a week's stay, after which they will be at home in New York City, where the groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Glass, is an expert accountant.

The bride was attractively attired for her journey in a tailored suit of blue tweed with platinum fox scarf, blue hat and grey shoes. She is a granddaughter of the late Willet Harris, so well known and highly esteemed in this county, and she has won countless friends by her winsome personality. Prior to her marriage, Miss Harris had been an instructor in Goldey's Commercial College, Wilmington, and more recently had taught in the primary school of Preston.
