POETRY.

SPEED THE PLOUGH.

The teams are waiting in the field,
The ploughmen all a-row;
As brisk and gay as birds in May,
They make a goodly show.
The farmer stands, and sees all hands
Turned out and ready now;
Yet ere they start, with all our heart,
We'll say, God speed the plough.

We plough the field, but He must yield
His sunshine and his rains;
In hope we plough, in hope we sow,
That He will bless our pains.
'Tis even weight and furrow straight
That bears away the bell;
So off! and God speed the plough,
And sound the ploughmen well!

BE GENTLE WITH THY WIFE.

Be gentle! for ye little know
How many trials rise;
Although to thee they may be small,
To her of giant size.

Be gentle! though perchance that lip
May speak a murmuring tone,
The heart that beat with kindness yet
And joy to be thine own.

Be gentle! weary hours of pain
'Tis woman's heart to bear;
Then yiled her what support thou canst;
And all her sorrow share.

Be gentle! for the noblest hearts
At times may have some grief,
And even in a pettish word
May seek to find relief.

Be gentle! for unkindness now
May rouse an angry storm
That all the after years of life
In vain may strive to calm.

HUMOROUS SCRAPS.

WATTS STREET.—A Frenchman stopped a lad in the street to make some inquiries of his whereabouts.

"Mon fren, wat is ze name of zis street?"

"Well, who said 'twant?"

"Wat you call zis street?"

"Of course we do!"

"Pardonnez! I have not ze name you call him."

"Yes, Watts you call it."

"How you call ze name of zis street?"

"Watts street, I told yer."

"Zis street?"

"Watts street, old feller, and don't yer go ter make game o' me."

"Sacre! I ask you one, two, tree several times offin, vill you tell to me ze name of ze street—eh?"

"Watts street, I told yer. Yer drunk, ain't yer?"

"Mon little fren, vere you lif, eh?"

"Sir," said a pompous personage, who once undertook to bully an editor, "do you know that I take your paper?"—"I've no doubt you do take it," replied the man of the quill, "for several of my honest subscribers have been complaining lately about their papers being missing from the post office.

The following colloquy actually took place at an eastern post office between "Pat" and a Postmaster:

"I say, Mr. Postmaster, is there any litter for me?"

"Who are you, my good sir?"

"I am meself, that's who I am."

"Well, but what is your name?"

"An what do you want wid the name? Isn't it on the letter?"

"Well, Mary Burns then, if you must have it?"

"No, sir—there is none for Mary Burns."

"Is there no way to get in there, but through this pane of glass?"

"No, sir."

"It's well for you there is'nt. I'd teach you better manners than to insist on a gentleman's name; but you didn't get it after all—so I'm aven wid you!"

COOL.—Mr. Smith! the hogs are getting into your cornfield!"

"Never mind Billy, I'm sleepy—corn won't hurt em."

A chaplain at a State Prison was asked a friend, how his parishioners were. "Under conviction" was the reply.

AFFECTION.—An inveterate bachelor, being asked by a sentimental Miss why he did not secure some fond one's companionship in the voyage on the sea of life, replied—"I would if I were sure such an ocean would be the Pacific."

"Papa—Why don't they give the telegraph wire a dose of gin?"

"Why my child?"

"Because the papers say they are out of order, and mamma always takes gin when she is out of order!"

"Belvidier, give that child a dose of catnip tea and put it to bed immediately, and fetch me a large sized fan."

WHITMAN'S

PREMIUM WROUGHT IRON RAIL-WAY

HORSE POWER.

AT the great Agricultural State Fair, held at Baltimore, October, 1849, there was the largest exhibition of Horse-powers and Threshing Machines ever exhibited in this State, or at any other State Fair in this country, and all thoroughly examined and tested by a large and competent committee, who awarded the first premium to the above power, as the best on the ground. More than five thousand of these powers are now in use by many of the best Farmers in the country, and they consider them to be double in power to any of the best Sweep Powers, more durable and much easier for the horses. CASH PRICE, $100.

E. WHITMAN, Jr.,

Corner of Light and Pratt Streets, Baltimore.

☞As evidence that we do not over rate the capacity of this Power, and for the satisfaction of farmers in want of a good machine, we insert the following letter, just received from one of the most intelligent and respectable farmers in Virginia and we are in daily receipt of letters of the same import from Maine to Texas.

Miller's Tavern, Essex Co., Va, May 20, 1850.

Mr. E. WHITMAN, Jr.—

Dear Sir:—I have for some time intended giving you a full description of the operation and success of the 2-horse wrought iron Rail-Way Power and Threshing Machine, I purchased of you last May. I will give you a few instances of threshing:—I carried the whole machine between 8 and 10 miles with an ox cart, and set it three times on different farms, and threshed from 115 to 120 bushels of wheat in one day, and each time took the machine out of the cart; made the tables; geared the horses; and commenced threshing in ten minutes. Rev. Peter Ainsley, Col. Richard J. Muse and Musgo Garnett, Esq., were witnesses to the above. In another instance, I commenced threshing at Mr. W. R. G. Trible's, at 8 o'clock in the morning, and threshed 92 bushels of wheat by 12 o'clock in the afternoon of same day, and threshed 47 bushels of wheat before sun down. Mr. L. D. Brooks, Mr. Beverly Brooks, and others, can vouch for the truth of this statement. I frequently threshed 100 bushels of wheat from breakfast to dinner time—and during the season, I threshed 38 different crops, making in all 5,450 bushels of wheat, and the wear of the machine is scarcely apparent—and I consider the labor to the horses no more than plowing in light land. I candidly believe, your wrought-iron Railway Horse-power and Thresher surpasses any I have seen, and I find it is now much better since your late improvements have been attached.

You will please have two of your Improved Railway Horse-power and Threshers put up and sent to me by first conveyance they are for two of my neighbors—have them landed at Piscataway Bridge. I think I shall order one or two more of them between now and harvest.

Very respectfully, yours,

june 12. W. G. COVINGTON.

ONE WHEEL POWER.

WE also have the EDDY POWER, which is one of the most simple and durable Sweep Powers now in use. It consists of one wheel only, and the horses work inside of the wheel. It can be transported easily from place to place, in a common farm wagon, and may be set up in 20 minutes, and taken down in half that time. It is simple in construction, not liable to get out of order, and may be easily repaired, the gearing being made entirely of wrought iron. It may work in the open field, though it is better to have it under cover, when stationary, especially during stormy or very hot weather. For efficiency, durability and simplicity, this, for a sweep power, is preferred by many to all others. Price of the largest size, with our late improvements, $100. E. WHITMAN, Jr.
