The Honorable,

Gentlemen:-

In reference to the case of Sergeant Richard E. Freeman, whom you recently granted a four-weeks sick leave, I have the honor to report that while the patient is somewhat improved, he has not as yet sufficiently recovered from his nervous break-down to be able to resume his duties.

I would therefore respectfully recommend to your honorable Board that you extend his leave for a few more weeks, and at the end of this extension I hope to be able to report him well.
