

Trusting you will give this matter your kind consideration, I have the honor to be.

Very respectfully yours,

Edw. M. Singewald, M.D. "

- - - - -

It was ordered that the leave of Sergeant Richard E. Freeman be extended two weeks from September 2nd, 1912.

(See Exhibit No.4072.

Smoking Allowed in Moving Picture Parlors.

In the matter of smoking in moving picture parlors complained of as dangerous by Mr. Max Carton of the Jewish Educational Alliance, as referred to in the proceedings of Auguts 2nd, 1912, the Marshal submitted to the Board a communication, as follows, from the Collector of Water Rents and Licenses:

"Baltimore, September 3, 1912.

Thos. F. Farnan, Esq.,
Marshal of Police,
Court House, City.

My dear Sir:-

Referring to your recent communication in reference to smoking in Moving Picture Halls, I beg to advise you that I brough the matter to the Inspector of Buildings and in this connection I beg to hand you for your information copy of letter sent by him to the owner of each Moving Picture Parlor in the city, and I trust it will be the means of discontinuing the smoking.

Yours very truly,

DAN'L J. LODEN,
Collector."

(See papers filed as Exhibit No.4137.)

Survey.

In the matter of Patrolman Frederick G. Russell, Southern District, now on the sick list suffering from Abuminaria, communication, as follows, was received:

"Baltimore, September 4th, 1912.

Mr. Josiah A. Kinsey,
Secretary, Board of Police Commissioners.

Dear Sir:-

After a conference with Dr. E. H. Hutchins, Fourth Medical District, it has been decided that the condition of Patrolman Frederick Russell, Southern District, is such, that in our opinion a survey of this officer should be made.

Very respectfully,

JAMES M. CRAIGHILL,
Chief Physician.