John King surviving partner of Thos. L. Dunn & John King vs Thomas I. Perry & Roger Perry

Be it remembered, that heretofore, to wit, on the fifteenth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty two John King surviving partner of Thomas L. Dunn and John King by Beene & Pigman his attorney, prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of appeals here a writ of the State of Maryland of Venditioni Exponas directed to George Bruce Esquire late Sheriff of Allegany County in the words and figures following to wit.

Maryland fc. (The State of Maryland. To George Bruce Esquire late Sheriff of Allegany County, Greeting. Whereas (Seals place) at a County Court, began and held at Cumberland in and for Allegany County on the third monday of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen a certain John King surviving partner of Thomas L. Dunn and John King by Judgment of the said Court, recovered against a certain Thomas I. Perry and Roger Perry late of Allegany County as well the sum of four thousand dollars current money a certain debt as the sum of eight thousand dollars for his damages which he had sustained as well by reason of the detention of that debt as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended whereof the said Thomas I. Perry and Roger Perry are convict as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same Court, brought before the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore, at the City of Annapolis, by reason of errors alleged to have been therein, manifestly appears; and whereas it hath been adjudged in the said Court of Appeals, at the City of Annapolis aforesaid, on the second monday in June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty that the said Judgment, given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed and ratified, and that the said John King surviving partner as aforesaid might have execution against the said Thomas I. Perry and Roger Perry for as well the debt damages, costs and charges aforesaid, as adjudged unto him in the said County Court, as also for
