

Saloons.

Unsigned communication was received, the writer of which claims to be a saloon-keeper, in which complaint is made that members of the force permit some saloons to violate the law and prohibit others, and in which attention is called to disorderly houses in the Southern District, particularly: Kern's and Klassmeyer's on Weyler street and Brown's, corner of James alley and West street.

Ordered referred to the Marshal for his attention.

Permit for Sale of Liquor.

The application of the German Hungarian Liederkrantz for permit in favor of licensee Max Hecker, 1523 Beason street, to sell intoxicating liquors at a ball to be given by the said society at 1523 Beason street, September 9th, 1912, from 8 p.m. to 2 a.m., was ordered granted.
