"ALL OVER BUT THE—WORKING"

Well, it's all over; brass bands, speeches, ox roasts, dinners parades, and all of the things which accompany elections. Time to get down to business again, for everybody.

Maybe you were pleased with the results, and maybe you weren't. Nine chances out of ten, though, it will be the people who didn't vote at all who will be most dissatisfied. Let such people keep still—they have no right to kick.

Satisfied or dissatisfied, there's only one thing to do—get to work at your own individual job, and work harder than you've ever worked. Back up these newly elected men as far as you can; help them wherever and whenever possible. We'll get where we want to go much faster if everybody pulls instead of hanging on behind.

As for the successful candidates, let them see to it that they carry out faithfully the trust of their constituents. We are watching you—those who voted for you and those who voted against you. If you represent us well, good; if you don't, watch out next election.

IS HE WORTH IMPROVING ?

Is that boy of yours worth making a better man of than you are ? Is he worth a little time and effort on your part to give him a better start in life than you had ? Is he worth your friendship in a big-brother way ?

If you think he is, then you will heartily support the movement to organize the Boy Scouts in Caroline county and on the Eastern Shore, for these are but a few things that the Boy Scouts will teach your boy, helping him to be worth while and making of him a man worthy of his dad.

The Boy Scouts Organization of America was started some years ago and has so rapidly spread that their is hardly a community that does not have at least one troop of Scouts in training. Perhaps this movement is a little new to you and enlightenment as to its methods and aims may be worthwhile.

Nothing in the laws or instructions of the Boy Scouts is objectionable, while on the other hand, it teaches the boy first and foremost his duty to God, then to Country and lastly but not the least, his duty to his fellow man, for one of the most essential instructions of a Scout is "Do something for some one each day." No boy can go through life with a command always within his reach, so pointed as that, that will not make of himself a more useful citizen and a better neighbor.

In the course of the training the boys are taught to depend not upon others, but upon their own resources, their motto being "Be Prepared." In their activities they are taught to be prepared. They are giving courses in cordage, first aid, campbuilding and tending, swimming, rescue work, and so many other things that the best way to find out is to enlist yourself and your boy in this great movement and study with him the great lessons of life which are taught.

Boys who in other communities have graduated from the Scout work and are now in business say that the things which they learned as Scouts are every day essentials and they do not see how they could get on in their respective positions without this training.

Scout leaders will soon be appointed in every section of the county to take up the training of the boys of the respective communities. You, fathers, get behind this movement and see to it that your boy has a square deal, a good start, to overcome the obstacles that are in his way through life, by giving him in his early days a training which cannot be measured in dollars and cents and which is taught the boy in such a way that he is enthusiastic about learning, rather than having to b edriven to it. Let's all push this movement and make Caroline county's organization the best on the Shore.

LET'S CELEBRATE CHRISTMAS TOGETHER

What about a regular Community Christmas this year ? What does every one think of it ? A big tree down on the green, everybody in town there on Christmas eve, singing the wonderful old carols that we've all been brought up on. Somehow it seems as though it would bring the Christ Child a little nearer to us, if we'd forget all our differences on all subjects for a night, get out in the open, and sing His praises together. It's just a suggestion, but it's time to begin planning for it, if we are to do it at all.

Think of it—a great evergreen, sparkling with tiny electric lights; the tang of the forest all about; twinkling stars above; all your neighbors and friends gathered together, in Christmas fellowship, and then—"It Came Upon the Midnight Clear" and "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," ringing out from hundreds of throats. Oh, it would be glorious, and make Christmas ten times more worth while.

Let us hear from you, Churches, Community Club, Choirs, Men's Organizations, individuals.

FEDERALSBURG

Three New Wee Citizens in Town

Last week the town's population was increased by three, the newscomers being a wee lad and two lassies whose coming has brightened three homes by their respective entrance therein. On Monday, October 30th, a little girl was born in the Methodist Protestant parsonage to the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. MacDorman; on Tuesday, October 31st, a son, Reuben Carlton, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Seegars, and a baby daughter, Roberta Condon, being born the following day, November 1, to Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Jefferson.

"Better Speech!" Urge School & Club

The Better Speech Movement has pervaded our community. Countless posters, many of them very cleverly conceived and executed, have been made and exhibited by the high school children in an effort to direct the public's attention to the importance of careful, proper speech. The clubwomen too, are co-operating in this plan and have devoted their meeting this week to the cause of "Better English," the program being in charge of the educational commiittee—Mrs. Herman Noble, director; Miss May Thompson, Mrs. J. D. Jefferson—for the afternoon.

On next Wednesday, November 15, the club will celebrate its second anniversary, the day's program being provided by Mrs. William H. Carson of Salisbury, Md., formerly of this place, an associate member, who was largely instrumental in founding the Woman's Club here.

Former Town Girl Mother in India

News has just been received here of the birth of a daughter to Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Pfitch in India. Mrs. Pfitch was before her marriage in 1918, Miss Eva Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Williams, of this town. Almost immediately after their marriage, Dr. and Mrs. Pfitch sailed for India where Dr. Pfitch is serving as a missionary physician. They have a son, John Robert, born in October, 1919, the daughter, Virginia Adella, having been born September, 28, 1922.

Prospective Bride "Showered"

On Wednesday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. Fernandes Davis, a "shower" was bestowed upon Miss Sophia Kirwan, the popular instructor at the high school, whose engagement to Mr. Arthur Jones, of Cambridge, was recently announced.

Miss Kirwan, whose home is near Cambridge, has taught here for four years, during which time her attractive personality and friendly manners have made her extremely popular. Her resignation takes effect November 17.

Sad Death of Mrs. Wright

Mrs. Laura Rebecca Wright, wife of Mr. Fred Noble Wright, a druggist of this town, died most unexepectedly last Thursday morning, November 2, at the cambridge hospital, following an operation there the day before.

The operation was apaprently successful, but hemorrhage followed and in spite of all efforts made to save her, the patient never revived.

The untimely death of Mrs. Wright, proved all the more shocking to the town in that it had no knowledge of the impending operation and had so recently seen Mrs. Wright, apparently in health, going about her usual duties. She was a woman who had many friends in the town and countryside and had endeared herself to them by her bright, amiable disposition and kindness of heart. She was a member of the M. E. Church and of its organizations—the Ladies Aid Society and Foreign Missionary Society—as well as of the Woman's Club, in all of whose activities she was ever ready and willing to lend her aid. She will be sadly missed by a loyal circle of friends.

Mrs. Wright was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Stroup, who came from Bloomsburg, Pa., to this community about 36 years ago, when their daughter was 6 years of age.

In 1902 she married Mr. Wright, who mourns the loss of a faithful, loving, untiringly devoted wife and companion.

Funeral services, largely attended, were held Sunday afternoon at the residence, the Rev. Mr. F. C. MacSorley, assisted bby the Rev. Mr. T. E. Terry, a former pastor, now of Bridgeville, officiating. Interment was in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

Improvements in Green Ridge

Concrete pavement has recently been laid in front of the duplex dwelling on Park Lane, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Christopher and Mrs. Charles Pratt, respectively and owned by Mr. F. N. Wright. This is a great improvement on this street and points the way to greater improvements all along this street.

The Town Commissioners have been placing shells on this street at the intersection of Greenridge Road and on the latter street which tends to make these streets somewhat better as thoroughfares.

Red Men Will Rally Here

On Next Wednesday night, November 14th, the Grand Rally of the Eastern Shore Red Men will be held at the the Grand Opera House here when sixteen tribes will hold a big pow-wow. There will be a big street parade embracing all the tribes and three councils of degrees of Pocohontas headed by the Federalsburg Band, after which classes of adoption will be held. Following these the meeting is open to the public which is privileged to hear the several prominent speakers scheduled to speak.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wright, of Baltimore, have been at the home of Mr. Wright's brother, Mr. Fred N. Wright, since the funeral of the latter's wife, last Sunday. Mrs. T. N. Finnegan, of Baltimore, a niece, who has also been here, went home Tuesday to return for a longer stay with her uncle. Mrs. William McMahon, of Bloomsburg, Pa., is also Mr. Wright's guest.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Cantner have had as their guest, Mrs. R. E. Fulmer, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Thomas I. Wright, of Hurlock, and Mrs. Mary Corkran, of Rhodesdale, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Keys.

Mr. T. Mark Breeding, of Denton, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Breeding Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. James Gambrill, Mrs. Harry Gambrill and children and Mrs. I. N. Willoughby, all spent Sunday with Philadelphia relatives taking advantage of the day excurson there.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Hill, of near here, have announced the marriage of their oldest daughter, Maud, to Mr. Robert A. Coulby, of Baltimore, on October 23. Mr. and Mrs. Coulby will reside at the Challenge apartments, Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvan H. Stack, who came a week ago, to attend the funeral of Mr. E. M. Stack, Mr. Stack's father, left Thursday morning of this week, for their home at Warren, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Williams, of Philadelphia, spent Saturday and Sunday here with Mr. William's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Williams.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. McDowell, of Middletown, Del., were guests on Wednesday of Mrs. MacDowell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Williams.

Mrs. O. T. Davis returned Sunday from a two weeks' visit with friends in and near Ridgely.

Mr. A. H. Covey, who recently received an injury to his head while traveling to Baltimore in a Ford chassis, is now able to be up and out tho he is still unable to work.

Mr. Charles H. Smith, who, this fall, entered the State Sanitarium at Sabillasville, is now at home spending a week with his wife and children here.

Mr. J. Russell Carroll, of Baltimore, was with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Carroll, from Sunday till Wednesday.

Little Miss Jane Breeding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Ford Breeding, of Seaford, is spending several days here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Breeding.
