LARGE CROWD AT PRESTON LAST THURS.

People from all parts of the Eastern Shore gathered at Preston last Thursday, the occasion being a big Democratic barbecue. T. Alan Goldsborough, candidate for re-election to the House of Representatives from the Fifth district was guest of honor. This is Mr. Goldsborough's home county and the people are having the greatest demonstration for him ever seen in Caroline.

Parade Starts Festivities

The festivities started at 12 o'clock with a parade, men and women on horseback, all kinds of decorated boats, automobiles and many afoot. Plenty of music and banners and bunting on every hand gave a carnival appearance to the small town. Thousands were there from all parts of the Shore.

Senator Orlando Harrison, of Worcester; W. Laird Henry, of Dorchester; T. Mason Shehan, Gen. Joseph B. Seth and a host of others from Talbot and many others from Eastern Shore counties were there. Governor Ritchie was unable to attend.

Following the parade an ox-roast was next in order. In a large field back of the main street a pit was dug back of the main street a pit was dug. All night long a fire had been kept burning ready to roast the ox the first thing next morning. The ox was said to be an alfalfa fed one from Talbot county and was slaughtered two days before in order to have it just right for that day.

Oysters Steaming

Not far from the roasted ox was an engine steaming oysters. Between the two points the crowd divided its time and soon the inner man was well satisfied. This put the crowd in a good humor and the speaking was soon under way. The porch of the residence of T. L. Trice was used as a platform for the speakers.

In front of the house were arranged hundreds of benches. These were soon filled with men and women, and skirting these row after row of people were standing. It was a very large audience, but very attentive and orderly.

Harvey Cooper called the meeting to order and W. H. Alderson was chosen chairman and J. A. Colbert secretary. The chairman introduced T. Alan Goldsborough as the first speaker, and the candidate for Congress consumed very little time. Robert E. Lee, of Baltimore, spoke next.

Sailed Bay In Skiff

Then followed Representative Thomas Connolly, of Texas. Mr. Connolly stated that he had used every means of transportation getting there except airship. Mising the Annapolis ferry after riding from Washington in a trolley car, he was forced to buck the waves of the Chesapeake in an open skiff. Then a ride in an automobile to Preston completed the trip.

In all the speeches reference was made to the excellent record made by Mr. Goldsborough at Washington. The tariff was repeatedly scored. The farmers were told that the tariff is responsible for their present helpless condition. A strong plea for change from a Republican to a Democratic majority in Congress was made.

At the close of Mr. Connolly's talk rain began to fall and the crowd soon dispersed. A street dance was planned for the evening, but the rain spoiled that. The carnival spirit prevailed all day and stores closed and business ceased while the program was being carried out.

The Committees

Those in charge were as follows:

Ox and Oyster Roast—J. Frank Lednum, chairman of committee numbering 47.

Entertainment and Reception Committee consisted of 26 men and women.

Christmas Cards

are taking the place of gifts, in many cases. With a large circle of friends, and with a limited pocket book, it is the sensible thing to do.

Each year sees a big improvement in these cards. They are more artistic than ever this year and carry the true Christmas spirit.

Our samples have arrived, and we are ready for your orders. We print or engrave your name on them for a small charge, and you will be pleased with the effect.

Order now, while the stocks are full, and avoid the last-hour frantic rush.
