Henry Howard use of Campbell, Ritchie & Co
vs
Samuel Ringgold
Isaac S Swearingen &
Daniel Schnebly.

Be it remembered that heretofore to wit on the eleventh day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three Henry Howard by William Price his attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of appeals here a writ of the state of Maryland of fieri facias or superseideas to the sheriff of Washington County directed in the words and figures following to wit:

Maryland Sct. The State of Maryland to the sheriff of Washington County greeting Whereas at a County Court began and held at Hagers Town in and for Washington County on the third monday of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty a certain Henry Howard by the judgment of the said Court recovered against a certain Samuel Ringgold late of Washington County yeoman as well the sum of one thousand dollars current money for his damages which he had sustained by occasion of the non performance of a certain promise and assumption to the said Henry Howard by the said Samuel Ringgold before that time made as the sum of eleven dollars and seventeen cents for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended whereof the said Samuel Ringgold is convict as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same court brought before the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore at the City of Annapolis by reason of errors alleged to have been therein manifestly appears. And whereas it hath been adjudged in the said Court of Appeals at the City of Annapolis aforesaid on the second monday in June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty two that the said judgment given in form aforesaid be in all things affirmed and ratified and that the said Henry Howard might have execution against the said Samuel Ringgold for as well the damages costs and charges aforesaid as adjudged unto him in the said County court as also for the sum of eleven dollars and fifty nine cents for his damages costs and charges by him sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid by means of the prosecuting a certain appeal by the said Samuel Ringgold before the said Court of Appeals for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises whereof the said Samuel Ringgold is convict as of record it likewise appeareth for which said damages costs and charges the said Samuel Ringgold and certain Isaac S Swearingen and Daniel Schnebly on the seventh day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty two before John Rentch and Benjamin Yoe two justices of the peace for Washington County aforesaid did confess judgment to the said Henry Howard the said damages costs and charges to be levied of their bodies goods or chattels lands or tenements for the use of the said Henry Howard in case the said Samuel Ringgold should not pay and satisfy to the said Henry Howard the said damages costs and charges so as aforesaid recovered against him with the additional costs thereon according to the act of assembly in such cases made and provided which said confession in form aforesaid taken was by the same justice returned to the said Court of appeals and whereof the said Samuel Ringgold Isaac S Swearingen and Daniel Schnebly are convict as of record is manifest. Therefore you are hereby commanded that of the goods and chattels lands and tenements of the said Samuel Ringgold Isaac S Swearingen and Daniel Schnebly being in your bailiwick you cause to be made the damages costs and charges aforesaid and have you those sums before the said Court of appeals to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second monday in June next to render unto the said Henry Howard the damages costs and charges aforesaid. Hereof fail not at your peril and have you then and there this writ Witness the Honourable Jeremiah Townley Chase Esquire chief Judge of the Court of appeals the second day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty two

Issued the 11th day of March 1823. (Price) Th Harris clk
