

Patrolman James Dempsey.
Tuberculosis.

In the matter of Patrolman James E. Dempsey, now under treatment for tuberculosis at the State Tuberculosis Sanitorium, a report, as follows, was received:-

"Baltimore, September 10th., 1912.

Mr. Josiah A. Kinsey, Secretary,

Board of Police Commissioners, Baltimore, Md.

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of the enclosed letter from Dr. Victor F. Cullen, Supt., Md. State Sanitorium, in regard to Officer James Dempsey, whose leave of six months expires September 18th. Evidently if this man comes back to town and goes on duty, he will most likely soon be back on the sick report again, and while I am somewhat skeptical about his being fit for duty November 1, it seems about all that can be recommended for him, a further extension of leave, with or without pay, as the Honorable Board may deem fit.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES M. CRAIGHILL, Chief Physician."

In view of the recommendation of Chief Physician Dr. James M. Craighill, as above, leave with pay of Patrolman James E. Dempsey was extended to November 1, 1912.
