"Baltimore, Md., September 10th., 1912.

Thomas F. Farnan, Marshal of Police.

Sir:-

Relative to the attached request of Mrs. E.H. Fay, Supt. of Matrons, for a new iron bed, springs and mattress, for use of the Matron's room at the Eastern Police Station; two small tables and two plain chairs, for use in the Juvenile Prison Rooms at the Eastern Police Station, I would respectfully recommend that the same be furnished.

The new iron bed, spring and mattress to be used in the Matrons Room, and the old bed, spring and mattress, now used in the Matrons Room, to be transferred to one of the Juvenile Prison Rooms where the bed is dilapidated and worn out.
