

Trusting to be favored with your order, I am,

Respectfully,

J. H. FERD. HAHN."

"Baltimore, Md., September 9th., 1912.

Honorable Board of Police Commissioners,

Baltimore, Md.

Gentlemen:-

We herewith submit you sample cap such as is shown at your office, and for which you now ask bids. We will be pleased to furnish you this cap at one dollar and fifty-three cents ($1.53) each. We desire to call your attention to the fact that the material used is "Cravenetted", or Rainproofed. Trusting to be favored with your order, we are,

Respectfully yours,

NEW YORK CLOTHING HOUSE,
ROSENFELD BROTHERS, Prop."

The sample caps furnished by the bidders, as above, were submitted to the captains of the respective police districts assembled at Headquarters for their judgment - speaking for themselves and the men of their commands, - as to which of said caps would be most suitable for the service and acceptable to the men, taking into consideration the points of price, quality, weight and appearance.

The captains voted unanimously in favor of sample cap No.3, submitted by J.H.Ferd. Hahn. The Board therefore accepted the offer of J.H.Ferd. Hahn to furnish 242 caps like his sample No.3, for the sum of $2.00 each.
