

unknown to them, nor did he ever stop at the Emerson Hotel.

Upon further inquiry I learn that the officer referred to is Patrolman Andrew Kaufman, whose statement, together with that of a witness (Alex. Bartlett) is hereto attached.

I can hardly realize that Patrolman Kaufman would be discourteous to any one as he has always had the reputation of being most affable and obliging.

In my judgment the allegations of Mr. Boyle are somewhat exaggerated.

I would therefore respectfully recommend that the complaint of Mr. Boyle be filed without further action.

Very respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."

Donation.

Upon the recommendation of the Marshal it was ordered that Detective Thomas A. Berney be permitted to retain Six Dollars received by him from the Ellicott City authorities for the arrest and attending the trial of Charles Nails, charged with abduction.
