Very respectfully,

WILLIAM E. RODGERS,
920 N. Stricker street.

P.S. Request the removal of Officer Cullison from that beat on Lawrence street to where he can fulfill his duty more faithfully."

Patrolman Cullison said that some of the places mentioned in Mr. Rodger's communication were on his post and some were not; that the keepers of all of those on his post had been sent by him before the Grand Jury or to the Station-house; that in some instances, the accused were not indicted and in other cases the persons charged had been tried and paroled; that he had been instructed not to proceed against any of those selling groceries on Sunday until otherwise ordered; from which he inferred that the dealers were to be allowed to sell without interference until the matter could be taken up again with the Grand Jury; that he had, since receiving such instructions, not interfered with any of the dealers, treating all alike, those who had been paroled and those who had been acquitted.
