TOWN & COUNTY Personalographs

Mrs. W. C. Beckwith spent Tuesday in Baltimore.

Bricks for sale at The Hughes Lumber & Coal Company. ad

Mrs. Ida Hollingsworth was a Baltimore visitor this week.

Mrs. M. E. Wilson visited friends in Baltimore last week.

Mr. Will Mason of Washington is visiting Denton relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Davis were Baltimore visitors last week.

Mr. M. K. Newnam made a business trip to Baltimore this week.

Mrs. Mark Breeding has been spending some time in Easton.

Postmaster Samuel G. Nuttle has been on the sick list this week.

Mr. Norman Pitts made a business trip to Baltimore last week.

Mrs. J. H. Summerfield entertained at cards on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Richard Percy of Baltimore visited Denton friends this week.

Mr. Merritt Redden is on a business trip this week to New Orleans.

Mrs. Oron Smith and son Henry are visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

Mr. Clifford Brown, of Baltimore is spending a few days with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Rairigh spent a part of last week in Baltimore.

Mrs. William J. Rickards entertained the card club last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. C. Harry Whitby of Baltimore visited his father, Mr. Chas. H. Whitby, last week.

Mrs. Thomas Porter, of Camden, attending her mother's funeral. Mrs. M. E. Nowell.

Mr. George C. Skirven, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting Denton friends and relatives.

Mrs. John Carter and daughter, Miss Ella spent several days of last week in Baltimore.

Mr. Fred Smith of Newark, Del., spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Susan Smith.

Mr. Melvin C. James spent last week with relatives at Hackensack, N. J., and Aberdeen, Md.

Mrs. John H. Thawley of Burrsville spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Ferdinand Baynard.

Mrs. Sarah Anderson has returned from a months stay with Federalsburg relatives and friends.

Miss Pauline Roe of Baltimore spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Roe.

Mrs. Janie Chaffinch and Mrs. John Richards of Hobbs were guests last week of Mrs. H. Clay Hobbs.

Mrs. H. E. Ramsdell is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. C. J. Kern, of Tuckahoe Neck.

Mr. and Mrs. Keiford Hall, of Rhodesdale spent the week end as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kendall Maddox.

Mrs. Henrietta Lisles and Mrs. Harrietta Anderson of Church Hill are guests of Mrs. J. Kemp Stevens.

Mrs. Burton W. Wilkinson of Ridgely is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lewis.

Mr. Earl Nowell, who recently joined the navy, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby Nowell.

Mrs. J. Stanley Deakyne has returned from a visit to her parents Gen. and Mrs. George Hall, Milford, Del.,

Mrs. J. Owen Knotts and daughters, Margaret Jane and Mary Anne are spending some time with relatives in Dover.

Miss Lelia Mudd is spending the week in Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, purchasing spring millinery.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wise and children of Dover, Del., spent Sunday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Owen Knotts.

Mrs. William Culver and little Miss Mary are spending the week with relatives and friends in Germantown, Pa. and Bridgeport, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cole, of Baltimore, have been spending the week with Denton relatives having attended the funeral of he former's mother.

Mr. F. B. Pickering spent several days in Troy, N. Y., last week, when he attended the funeral of his father. He reports snow two feet deep when he left to return home.

Miss Pearle Mitchell a student of Beacome's Business college accompanied by her school chum, Miss Helena Coverdale also of Willmington spent the week end as guests of the former's mother Mrs. Sallie Mitchell.

MARYDEL

Mrs. Adelaide Hummer is visiting in Wilmington this week.

Mr. Grafton Heather and Miss Claudie Harman were Dover, Del., visitors on Wednesday evening.

Mr. T. E. Heather attended the auto show in Wilmington on last Thursday.

The following were Dover visitors on Friday evening.

Mr. Charles Shewbrooks, wife and mother, Mr. Harry Bowdle and Miss Maud Stafford, Dr. J. R. Smith, Messers Lea and Jessie Harman his mother and Mrs. B. R. Kaler and Batman Johnson, Messers Elmer Bowdle and J. F. Merryfield and Mrs. May and Miss Hummer.

Messers Grafton Heather and Charles Shewbrooks made a business trip to Wilmington on Friday.

Mr. James Scotton and family and Miss Effa Heather attended the Peoples church at Dover on Sunday evening, also Mr. Elmer Bowdle and family.

Miss Irene Harman of Washington spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Etta Harman.

Rev. C. W. Ruth was called to the bedside of his sister in Baltimore on Saturday morning leaving the M. E. Church without anyone to preach during his absence, so preaching services will be suspended until his return, which time will be indefinite.

Mr. James Hummer, of Frankford, Del., spent the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Hummer.

Mr. Thomas Price is visiting at the home of E. H. Morris.

Mrs. I. N. Smith is entertaining her aunt Mrs. Melvin of Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Tyson Heather are rejoicing over the birth of a fine baby boy the stork left last Thursday, February 1. Mrs. Heather is at Homeopathis hospital, Wilmington, where she is doing very nicely.

Mr. Heather spent Sunday with his boy and mother.

The Ladies Aid was entertained at the home of Mrs. James Scotton on Monday evening.

The fourth quarterly conference of the M. E. church was held last Thursday. Dr. W. A. Wise was present.

Miss Anna Jump is visiting in Dover this week.

VERNON

Mrs. Josephine Elliot of Hickman has been spending several days with Mrs. Josephine Todd.

Millard Hyde was recently killed by the striking of a band caused by the bursting of a wood saw. Much sympathy is extended the survivors.

Fox hunting is enjoyed as one of the sports of the season.

Anstine Stafford of Harrington has removed to Burrsville and is occupying the R. H. Dill property. He will occupy the store recently vacated by William Benson. Mr. Benson expects to move shortly to Harrington. He is domiciled for a while in the M. E. parsonage.

Some have been so unfortunate as to have their meat houses broken into and the meat stolen.

Leland Ross has accepted a position in Wilmington.

Sawing wood is the order of the day.

Many are ill with bad colds and grippe.

Mrs. Alice Ross enjoyed the big supper, pleasant conversation, and music at the home of her pupils Naomi and Lawson Layton last week the occasion being wood sawing day. A large number of relatives and friends of Rce's neighborhood and Felton also enjoyed the hospitality of the Layton household.

Rev. Mr. Richardson of Harrington will preach at White's church every two weeks until conference.

Mrs. Earle Nelson and child of Preston spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wix, former residents.

Mr. Handy from the State Hospital called on old acquaintances here last week, among them being Mrs. Josephine Todd.

Mrs. Rebecca H. Clancey and other members of the Woman's Home Missionary Society which she recently organized at the Corner Stone Temple, New York City, are expecting to make $80 from a quilt which they are making for the church after which she expects to buy it. She is superintendent of the Cradle Roll Department, has a big Sunday school of young ladies and assists in the instrumental part of the music. Notwithstanding her numerous household duties as wife and mother, she assists her older son now in the Rapid Advance High School in Latin and algebra and is also taking another course of home study, that of the Sunday School teacher, and expects to get her fifth diploma shortly.

Mr. Smith recently died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Jester. A large number of descendants survive.

HOBBS

Mr. and Mrs. Benniah Wothers attended the funeral of his mother Mrs. William Wothers, of Hickman, on Monday afternoon last.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Jopp and family were Sunday visitors of Preston friends on Sunday last.

Miss Nellie Thawley, of Denton spent the week end with Helen and Catherine Towers.

Mrs. William Hubbard entertained the Ladies Aid on Wednesday. On account of sickness quite a number of the members were absent.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis and Mrs. C. D. Collison were the guest on Sunday of Mrs. Corlila Roe, of Federalsburg.

Those of our village who were on the sick list we are glad to report, are much improved.

The kitchen shower given Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis last Friday evening was largely attended and many useful presents received.

Mrs. Manning Merriken spent Saturday with her mother, Mrs. Louise Moore of Federalsburg.

Mr. Fred Roe is running the mill for Mr. G. L. Jopp and people are well pleased wth his work.

GOLDSBORO

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Griffin, Mrs. J. W. Shively, Mrs. Cahail and Noble Shively visited friends at the Easton hospital Sunday afternoon. They found the sick getting along nicely.

Mrs. Thomas Gray was called to her home, Scranton, Pa., last Sunday on account of the death of her father.

Mrs. J. A. Jackson and children, of Denton, and Miss Anna Jackson, of Greensboro, visited some of their friends and relatives last Sunday.

Mr. Clifford Cortelyou and wife, of Rehoboth spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jarrell, Sr.

The enrollment at the Methodist Sunday school last Sunday was 129 and 110 present. The offering was $11.64. The reader of these lines is invited to join our school next Sunday. Nine persons have been recently received into church membership either by profession of faith or by church letter. A Junior League was organized last Sunday afternoon with forty-one members. Time of meeting Friday at 4 o'clock.

A little boy of Mr. Albert Lumb's died at his home. Mrs. C. T. Griffin attended the funeral.

Mr. N. L. Cooper is spending the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Thompson Gibson at Bridgetown.

HENDERSON

Mrs. F. B. Sweeney and daughter Amy were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Marvel on Sunday.

Miss Lillian Meredith of Wilmington spent the week end with her mother Mrs. J. F. Quillen.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Montague entertained at dinner on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Morton Bennett and family and Mr. Roland Cartwright of Goldsboro.

Miss Elva Jarman of Marydel was a guest at the home of Mrs. Augusta Bright on Sunday.

The Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Carty Cooper on Wednesday afternoon, February 7th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Quillen entertained at supper on Tuesday evening Rev. and Mrs. S. L. Hanby and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Cole.

Miss Helen Long spent the week end with Miss Evelyn Voshell of near Hazelville.

Miss Elma Melvin and Miss Elma Anna Cartwright, of Goldsboro.

Mary E. Lumb

Mary E. Lumb, aged 3 years, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lumb, near Bee Tree School, died last Saturday morning. The funeral was held at her late home on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. L. S. Hanby, of Henderson, officiating. Interment was made in Church Hill cemetery.

The meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Mrs. S. P. Shipman on Monday evening, February 12, 1923, at 7:30 o'clock.

If you are going tobuy

MAGIC BROODERS

WE CAN SAVE YOU MONEY

Get Our Prices

THE FARMERS SUPPLY CO., Inc.

Denton, Phone 137 Maryland

60 HOGS 60

Second Annual Sale of the

Springfield Herd of Big Type

Registered Poland China Hogs

Sixty Head Bred Sows, Bred and Open Gilts

BOARS READY FOR SERVICE

Wednesday, February 14, 1923

Sale at the Sheds adjoining the Voshell House, Chestertown, Md.

Sale Starts at 12:30 O'clock Sharp

We have selected 60 registered Big Type Poland Chinas from Springfield Herd for our Second sale, bred sows, bred and open gilts, and boars some ready for service Wednesday, February 14, 1923. Sale at the sheds adjoining the Voshell House, in Chestertown, Kent County, Maryland, at 12:30 o'clock prompt.

Many of the offerings have been treated to serum and virus and should be cholera immune.

Credit of 9 months will be given on bankable notes. Write for catalogue.

F. C. WOOD, Rock Hall, Md.

HARVEY L. COOPER
J. W. FUNK
DENTON, MD.

Headquarters for Wedding Rings
and Wedding Gifts

F. J. WRIGHT

OPTOMETRIST

SPECIAL EXCURSION

$3.00 Philadelphia

$2.75 Chester
$2.50 Wilmington

AND RETURN

Sunday, February 18

Special Train Leaves Queen Anne.....6:56 A. M.
Stopping at principal stations between Oxford, Md. Mt. Pleasant, Del

RETURNING, leave Philadelphia (Broad St.) 6.10 p. m., West Philadelphia, 6:15 p. m., Chester 6.36 p. m., Wilmington 6.57 p. m.

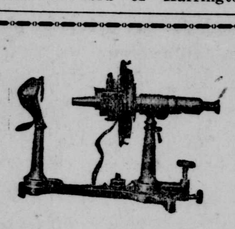
TICKETS ON SALE FRIDAY PRECEDING EXCURSION

SEE FLYERS CONSULT AGENTS

See Independence Hall Memorial Hall, Academy of Fine Arts, Commercial and University Museums, Fairmount Park, Zoological Garden and the many other objects of interest of "The Quaker City."

Pennsylvania
RAILROAD SYSTEM

The Route of the Broadway Limited



The Ophthalmometer is the only means of measuring the amount of corneal astigmatism and determining the axis.

DR. C. A. WHISLER
Osteopathic Physician and Optometrist
DENTON, Md.

Hours by Appointment.

ENTERTAINMENT POSTPONED

MOVING PICTURES AND MUSIC

WILLISTON PAVILION

UNTIL FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16TH

Under auspices of

WILLISTON COMMUNITY CLUB

Children 10c Adults 15c

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2929_scm3546-0039.jpg