TOWN & COUNTY Personalographs

Mr. H. Earl Smith is in Baltimore this week.

White Lily Flour is good flour. Ask your grocer. ad

Mr. Carl Gorsuch of Easton was in Denton on Tuesday.

Bricks for sale at The Hughes Lumber & Coal Company. ad

Dr. F. J. Wright is in Baltimore and Wilmington this week.

White Lily Flour makes better bread. Ask your grocer. ad

Mrs. Fannie Priestly of Milton, Pa., is visiting Mrs. H. Clay Hobbs.

Miss Emily Johnson is visiting Mrs. Fletcher Wrigt in Wilmington.

Mr. Robert Pitts of Baltimore is visiting Denton relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Wilkinson of Ridgely were Denton visitors Sunday.

When you think of flour, think of White Lily flour. Ask your grocer. ad

Miss Hattie McConnell of Harmony spent the week end with friends in Denton.

Mr. George King is spending the week with his daughter, Mrs. M. E. Wilson.

Mr. Charles Plummer, Wilmington, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Plummer.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Green of Oxford were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Roe last week.

Miss Frances Price of Cambridge spent Sunday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Roe.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Porter of Marcus Hook are visiting Denton relatives and friends.

Mrs. Ida S. Hollingsworth has been attending retail millinery openings in Philadelphia this week.

Mr John Wentworth of St. Louis, Mo., has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. P. Roland Fisher.

Mrs. W. O. Lednum has been teaching this week for Miss Sadie Allen, who sa been on the sick list.

Mrs. H. E. Ramsdell left this morning for Doylestown, Pa., where she expects to spend several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Walker of Federalsburg were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Wilson on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Breeding and daughter, Mary Emily, have been spending a few days in Baltimore.

The Guild of Christ Church was entertained at the home of Mrs. William Scotton on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Hughes of Easton visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Roe, on Sunday.

The Misses Helen and Caroline Warner of Easton spent the week end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hignutt.

Mrs. J. Owen Knotts and daughters Margaret Jane and Mary Anne are spending the week with friends in Philadelphia.

Mr. J. L. Everngam and Miss Nan Murphy are in New York this week purchasing Spring goods for the J. L. Everngam store.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Brown of Newark, Del., and Mrs. Estelle Todd of Andersontown are guests of Mrs. Walter Sparklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dunning returned form Baltimore on Wednesday, where Mrs. Dunning has been receiving treatment.

Mr. Wilbur Clark of Western Maryland spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clark, at the Brick Hotel.

The Ladies Circle of the M. E. Church will serve a chicken and waffle supper at Hirs' Garage on Friday March 9th, at 6 o'clock.

The Epworth League of the M. E. Church will give a play on April 6th, entitled "Uncle Ephraim's Summer Boarders," at Masonic Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Everngam and Messrs. Frank L. R. Nuttle and William I. Norris motored to Wilmington on Sunday last.

Messrs. Lester Kauffman, R. M. Rairigh, F. Brown, J. Frank Wright and William Croll attended the Masonic lodge in Seaford last Thursday night.

Mrs. Avery Lednum of Marcus Hook was called home on account of the illness of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Dunham, who are both improving.

Miss Caroline Davis, accompanied by her scholmate, Miss Etta Kreiner, of Mount Airy, spent the week end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Davis.

Millinery Openings

Mrs. Ida S. Hollinsworth and Miss Lelia Mudd will hold their millinery openings next week. A fine display of latest styles and shades in millinery can be seen.

Mrs. Hollingsworth may be found at her new location on North 2nd street and Miss Mudd occupies the millinery parlors formerly used by M. Quackenboss.

P. T. Association Monday Night

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association will be held in the auditorium of the high school on Monday evening, March 5. All members, as well as all non-members who are interested in the work of the assocation, are urged to be present.

HASSALL-KEATS

Miss L. Alberta Keats and Mr. G. Connor Hassall were married in Denton last Sunday by Rev. A. A. Price. The bride, who is a stenographer in Philadelphia, was formerly a resident of Denton. Mr. Hassall was a cadet on the school ship "Annapolis" and is now an officer. Mrs. Hassall will spend the rest of the winter with relatives, then make her home in Philadelphia.

GREENSBORO

William E. Klotz

Wililam E. Klotz, who was burned while attempting to extinguish flames that enveloped an auto tank in Wilmington, on January 19th, died in the Delaware Hospital, Wilmington, on Saturday as the result of the burns.

Mr. Klotz, who was 33 years old, married Miss Mary Jarman of this town on December 12, 1922. Besides his wife, the deceased is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Klotz, of Ridgely, a brother, Harry, near Ridgely, and one sister, Mrs. James Wilson, of Wilmington.

The remains were carried to the home of his parents at Ridgely on Tuesday and the funeral was held at the Reformed Church Wednesday afternoon, with interment in Greensboro Cemetery.

Mrs. Julia E. Bishop

Mrs. Julia E. Bishop, wife of David Bishop, of near Greensboro, died early last Sunday morning from pneumonia, followed by heart trouble. Mrs. Bishop had been ill for about three weeks. She leaves to mourn her hoss a husband and seven children, namely, Charles, Nelson, Oscar, Mrs. Helen Lane, Mrs. Ruth Hurd, and Misses Eva and Pearl Bishop; also a brother and two sisters in California.

The funeral will be held at her late home this afternoon at 1 o'clock, Rev. Melvin G. Morris officiating, and interment will be made in Greensboro Cemetery.

Dill-Kalt

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Fred Kalt, of Camden, N. J., last Thursday, when her daughter, Ethel R., became the bride of J. Stanley Dill of Greensboro. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. E. Berstell, rector of St. Paul's P. E. Church, Camden.

Miss Elizabeth Hughes was in Philadelphia Monday attending the spring millinery opening.

Otis Towers of near Ridgely spent Sunday at the home of Mr. James Spence.

Mrs. Samuel Towers of Ridgely was the guest of her sister, Mrs. James Spence, on Tuesday.

Mrs. Otis Towers of near Ridgely is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. A. Meredith, who is quite sick.

B. B. Sewing Club were delightfully entertained last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Pippin.

Mrs. Ada Smith is spending some time in Philadelphia.

The Bridge Club was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Miss Grace Greenlee.

Mrs. Keene Saulsbury was in Baltimore on Monday.

Mrs. E. M. Noble was in Philadelphia on last Saturday.

Miss Josephine Vonwille returned home Wednesday after spending the week with her sster, Mrs. George Brown. Her mother, Mrs. P. Vonwille, will accompany her home after having spent the last two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Brown, and several friends in Harrington.

MARYDEL

Mr. H. H. Smith and family were Dover visitors on last Thursday.

Rev. W. T. Hartrauft and wife, of Goldsboro were guests at the home of Rev. C. W. Ruh on Thursday and accompanied Mr. Ruth to Templeville in the evening where he is holding revival meetings. The Rev. Hartrouft delivered the sermon for the evening.

Mr. Samuel Falkner, wife and daughter, of Rising Sun, were town visitors on Friday.

Mr. T. Olin Ford and family spent last Thursday in Hurlock.

Miss Anna Evans, of Sudlersville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Tyson Heather.

Miss Elizabeth Hall, of Oxford, is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. J. O. Hummer.

Mrs. George LeCompe and son, of Wilmington, spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. E. K. Everett.

Mr. J. F. Merryfield is spending some time in Philadelphia, with his sister. He has been in poor health for some time and is taking a vacation to improve his health. During his absence, his assistant, Mr. Clarence Phillips will carry the mail on his route.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson, of Wilmington, were guests at the home of Mr. Temple Smith on Sunday.

Mr. L. W. Harman made a business trip to Dover on Tuesday.

The citizens of Marydel are very glad to know they are to get a state road from here to Goldsboro.

It can't be done too soon to please them.

Mr. B. R. Kaler and family spent Sunday afternoon and evening in Dover at the home of Mrs. Kaler's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Olin Ford and Evelyn spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Harry Vane, Dover, Del.

Miss Helen Heather of Wilmington, was the week end guest of her mother.

Mrs. Thomas McGinnis, Jr., was taken to the Easton hospital on Saturday for an operation.

The young folks of town and community serenaded Mr. and Mrs. James Smith near town Tuesday evening.

Mr. Fred Bowdle and family of Philadelphia, spent the week end with Mrs. Bowdle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gooden.

Miss Anna Jump will have her spring opening of millinery Saturday, March 3d.

Mr. Roland Knotts, of Hartley, Del., was a town visitor Sunday.

Mr. Seward Dailey and sons, of Hartley, Del., spent Saturday afternoon with his mother, Mrs. Bella Dailey.

Mr. Harry Sparks was a business visitor in Wilmington last week.

Mr. William Keyer, of Fairlee, was the guest of B. R. Kaler Saturday.

GOLDSBORO

The supper served by the Ladies Aid last Thursday night was well attended and quite a nice sum was realized.

Mrs. J. A. Jackson, of Denton, spent Thursday with Mrs. W. J. Murphy and friends.

Mr. Robert Jarrell Sr., and sons, Robert Jr., and Noble attended the Canner's Meeting at Hurlock last Thursday. They report a good time and oysters served in almost every style.

The many friends of W. L. Cooper, of Bridgeville, will regret to learn that he is on the sick list.

The Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. Charlie Clark Wednesday, March 7th.

Mr. Howard Thomas has been confined to his home with pneumonia; but is better at this writing.

Miss Kathryn Shockley visited Philadelphia first of the week for the purpose of laying in her spring millinery supply. Miss Kathryn has opened up in the Wharton building, and is now ready to serve her customers. She appreciates the patronage given her in the past, and is ready to give her best service to the spring trade.

WILLISTON

Rev. J. E. Smith preached an interesting sermon, "Auto Suggestion" at the Williston church on Sunday. The church was very well attended.

Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Smith celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home in Philadelphia on Tuesday, February 27th.

On Friday, February 23, the Young Folk's Bible Class met with one of its members, Mr. Milo Crane. After the business was over the evening was spent playing games, delicious refreshments were then served.

Mr. O. G. Hignutt has installed a radio in his home.

During the past week many people have enjoyed skating on the Silver Lake mill pond.

The Community Club met with Mrs. W. C. Beckwith on February 22. When the social part of the meeting came, Mrs. Beckwith had arranged a Washington birthday party which everyone enjoyed.

Mr. O. M. Hignutt caught a few herring on Monday of this week.

PRESTON

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Elzey were in Baltimore the latter part of the week and on Friday evening attended the Western Maryland Alumni Banquet at the Hotel Emerson.

Mr. A. Preston Osteen, of Baltimore was in town on Thursday.

Miss Katherine Cox spent the week end in Baltimore.

Mrs. J. Frank Patchett entertained at cards on Wednesday evening last.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hollis were among those who attended the Masonic Banquet in Cambridge on Thursday evening.

Mr. J. R. Phillips, Jr., of Berlin, spent Wednesday with relatives.

Miss Emily Kellogg, our Home Demonstration agent was present at the meeting of the Woman's Club which met with Mrs. Martha B. Noble and gave an interesting lesson in basket making.

Among those who attended the oyster roast and luncheon given by the Eastern Shore Can Co., of Hurlock, on Thursday were Messrs S. E. Douglas, W. M. Wright, J. P. Harris, N. H. Fooks, E. L. Fooks, J. F. Dennis, J. F. Lednum.

The Rev. Alward Chamberlain will give the second of his addresses to be delivered during lent, on Friday next at 7:30 p. m.

The Jr. O. U. A. M. banquet which was held in the school auditorium Thursday night was well attended and everyone reported an enjoyable evening.

Prof. Harold Kinhart spent the week end in Easton.

Mr. Lawrence Hubbard, of Annopolis spent the latter part of the week with his family here.

Mr. Phillip Douglas, of Hurlock, was home on Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. V. R. Fritz, the manual training teacher at Federalsburg, was the guest of friends in town over the week end.

Mr Talbot Henry, of New York, has been visiting relatives during the past week.

When you are going to have that sale, put your advertisement in The The American Union.

PUBLIC SALE REGISTER

Following is a list of the sales as published in this and other papers of the county for the dates mentioned:

Tues. March 6, 2 p. m., at Court House Denton. Real estate in Denton—5135 square feet, Palace Theatre. Denton Amusement Co.

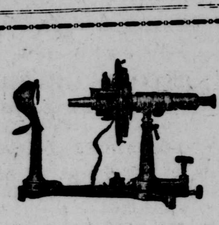
Tuesday, March 13, 2 p. m. at Court House, Denton. Real estate near Bethlehem in 4th district, 101 acres, on road Bethlehem to Hog Island. Improved, 4-room dwelling, etc. C. C. Merriken, assignee. J. L. and A. B. Sengr.

Tuesday, March 13, 2 p. m., at Court House, Denton. Real estate on the Greensboro-Ingleside road, "Baker's Delight". Improved, 5-room dwelling. William E. and Mary E. Carney.

Tuesday, March 13, 2 p. m., at Court House, Denton. Real estate on the road from Harmony's Church to Gilpin's Point, 97 1-2 acres. Improved, 8-room dwelling, barn,etc. Isaac L. and Blanche E. Mills.

March 10. Private sale at any time prior to this date—Stock of store goods of late Samuel G. Boyer, of Marydel. Annie E. Reed and Henry R. Lewis, administrators. See adv on page 2.

Wednesday, March 14, 10 a. m., on premises. Real and Personal Property—Farm implements and tract of land on road from Hobbs to Ring gold's Green, 15 1-4 acres. Fred R. Owens, trustee. See add on page 2



The Ophthalmometer is the only means of measuring the amount of corneal astigmatism and determining the axis.

DR. C. A. WHISLER
Osteopathic Physician and Optometrist
DENTON, Md.
Hours by Appointment.

Free Free

MOVING PICTURES

POULTRY

Culling, Selection, Care and Management of Poultry

BY

DR. O. B. KENT

Formerly instructor of Poultry Husbandry of Cornell University.

DON'T MISS THIS

Dr. Kent is conceded as an Expert on Poultry and you will receive a lot of valuable and interesting information.

Don't forget the time and place.

TIME: 8 p. m.

PLACE: Court House

TUESDAY, MARCH 6TH

UNDER AUSPICES OF

THE FARMERS SUPPLY CO.

DENTON - - - - - - - - Maryland

MUDD'S
Shop Unique

Millinery Opening
TUESDAY, MARCH 6TH

HATS

of surpassing Beauty and Originality, designed and executed for America's most distinguished Gentlewoman.

DENTON . - - - - - Maryland

Opposite M. K. Newnam's Music Store

Millinery Opening

Mrs. Ida S. Hollingsworth

extends to the ladies a most cordial invitation to her display of all the newest things in Spring Millinery on at her Millinery Parlors on N. Second street, third door from Hotel.

TUES., NEXT, MARCH 6

Attended Meeting at Salisbury

County Agent W. Collins Thomas attnded a meeting at Salisbury on Wednesday, February 21st, in the interest of co-operative marketing of truck crops, cantaloupes, especialy.

Representatives of the Eastern Shore Produce Exchange, truck farmers, Dr. F. B. Bomberger, Prof. S. B. Shaw and County Agents from Dorchester, Wicomico, Somerset and Worcester counties were present.

The meetng seemed to indicate that the best thing for thek cantoloupe grower o do at present is to organize into community packing associations, in order that a uniform, high quality product might be put on the market.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2929_scm3546-0058.jpg