Private Detective License.
Charles R. Gostling, - Denied.

In respect to the application of Charles R. Gostling for license to operate as a Private Detective, as referred to in the proceedings of September 5, 1912, report, as follows, was received and the recommendation as therein contained, was approved:-

"Baltimore, Md., September 14th., 1912.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners.

Gentlemen:-

I beg, respectfully, to return herewith, application of Charles R. Gostling, for a private detective license, and in reply to say that I referred this application to the Detective Bureau for an investigation,

From the reports of Acting Captain Thomas F. Hogan and Detective Charles Vahle it appears that Gostling is simply anxious to secure the private detective license for personal use and I would therefore respectfully recommend that his application be denied.

Very respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."

Pembroke W. Pitt.
Amount advanced by Third National Bank.

The Secretary reported that Detective Charles A. Kahler had turned over to him the sum of $600., to cover amount advanced by the National Bank of Baltimore for account of expenses of Detective Charles A. Kahler in search for Pembroke W. Pitt, charged with forgery and found by Detective Kahler in Athens, Greece, and brought back to Baltimore, May 29, 1912. (See proceedings of September 9, 1912.)

The Secretary was directed to pay this $600. to the National Bank of Baltimore and take the receipt of said bank therefor. (See Exhibit No. 4152.)
