Howard School Gets New Clock

Visitors at Howard's Rural School recently were delighted to see on the wall a splendid big clock. The teacher spoke with pride of their having acquired this. It was bought with money raised at their patrons meetings. The community there is so much interested in their school that most anything the good teacher needs is pretty sure to find its way into their midst. The dial is sufficiently large to be seen from any part of the room, and not only will it teach the little folks to read time, but the lessons which come from punctuality will last throughout the lifetime of every pupil. The parties reporting this tell us that the atmosphere in this school is perfectly delightful, no matter when you enter.

Home Destroyed by Fire

Mr. and Mrs. Webster Pringle lived at Double Hill for a couple of years and returned to their farm in Pennsylvania about two years ago. They left here many friends who will be pained to read the following, and whose sympathy for their loss will go out to this family:

The home of Webster Pringle, East Taylor Township, was destroyed by fire early Saturday morning. An overheated furnace is believed to have caused the fire. Mrs. Pringle was in the house at the time. Her husband was working in the garage. When the fire was discovered it had gained such headway that practically nothing could be saved. The house was newly built and the loss estimated at $5,000, with some insurance.

FRANKLIN CEPHAS

Franklin Cephas, a well known and highly respected colored citizen of Caroline, died at his home in Tuckahoe Neck, Sunday morning, March 4, at 10 o'clock. He is 80 odd years old and has been a faithful worker all of his life. Quite a few years he served as a slave and he will be missed by many white friends. His death was caused by pneumonia. He is survived by a widow and several children.
