the errors aforesaid, and so forth: And thereupon it is ruled by the Court of Appeals here, that the said appellees join in the errors by the said appellants above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid, or judgment by the Court of Appeals here, will be rendered against them in default thereof. And the said appellees by their attornies aforesaid, pray that a day may be given to them to join in the errors by the said appellants above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid, until the first Monday in December next; and to them it is granted: the same day is also given to the said appellees.

At which said first Monday in December being the third day of the said month, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven which said day was given to the said appellees to join in the errors by the said appellants above assigned, come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid, by their attornies aforesaid: and the said appellees by their attornies aforesaid, say, there is no error in the record of proceedings aforesaid, nor in the giving of the Decree aforesaid, and they pray that the Court of Appeals here will proceed to the examination as well of the record of proceedings aforesaid, as of the matters aforesaid, by the said appellants above for error assigned, and that the said Decree may be in all things affirmed and so forth. Thereupon further process of and upon the premises, between the parties aforesaid, is by virtue of an act of assembly in such case made and provided, further continued before the Court of Appeals here, until the second Monday in June next, the same day is given to the said parties, there then to hear the judgment of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the said premises and so forth.

At which said second Monday in June being the ninth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight come again into the Court of Appeals here the parties aforesaid, by their attornies aforesaid: But because the Court of Appeals here are not yet advised what judgment to give of and upon the premises, a day therefore is further given to the parties aforesaid, with the consent of the said parties, by their attornies aforesaid, to come before the Court of Appeals here, on the first Monday in December next, to hear the judgment of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the premises, for that the Court now here, as yet are not and so forth.

At which said first Monday in December being the first day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight come again into the Court of Appeals here the parties aforesaid, by their attornies aforesaid: Thereupon further process of and upon the premises aforesaid, between the parties aforesaid, is by virtue of an act of assembly in such case made and provided, further continued, before the Court of Appeals here, until the second Monday in June next; the same day is given to the said parties, there then to hear the judgment of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the said premises, and so forth.

And now at this day, to wit, the said second Monday in June being the eighth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine, come again into the Court of Appeals here the said William Hall, George W. Hall, John T. Hall, Edward B. Hall, Ralph Higgenbothom and Sophia his wife and Isabella Hall by Joseph I. Speed, Upton S. Heath and Nathaniel Williams their attornies, and also comes into Court here John T. Hall by his attornies aforesaid, and suggests to the Court here that since the last continuance of the cause aforesaid, and before this day, the said Edward Hall one of the Plaintiffs departed this life, and that since the death of the said Edward Hall administration with the testament and last will of the said Thomas Hall of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits, which were of the said Thomas Hall was in due form of Law committed and granted by the orphans Court of Hanford county to him the said John T. Hall, and this is not denied. Whereupon on motion of the said John T. Hall administrator as aforesaid by his attornies aforesaid, he is permitted by the Court here to appear and he accordingly does appear to and become a party in the appeal and proceedings aforesaid in the place and stead of the said Edward Hall for the purpose of prosecuting the same according to the act of assembly in such case made and provided. And also comes into Court here the said John B. Bayless and wife administrator of William W. Hall by Thomas S. Alexander William H. Marriott and other Sett their attornies. Whereupon as well the record and proceedings aforesaid, and the Decree given in form aforesaid, as the matters aforesaid, by the said appellants above for error assigned, being seen, and by the Court of Appeals here fully understood, and mature deliberation thereupon had; for that it appears to the Court of Appeals here that there is no error in the record of proceedings aforesaid, nor in the giving of the Decree aforesaid. Therefore it is considered by the Court of Appeals here that the Decree aforesaid, given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed and stand in full force and effect, the said causes for error above assigned and alleged in any wise notwithstanding: And it is further considered by the Court of Appeals here, that the said appellees have execution against the said Appellants as well for the Decree aforesaid adjudged unto them in the said Court of Chancery as also the sum of forty six dollars and seventy four cents adjudged unto the said Appellees by the Court of Appeals here on their assent for their costs and charges which they have sustained by occasion of the delay of the execution of the Decree aforesaid, by pretext of the prosecution of the said appeal by the said appellants for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises so aforesaid prosecuted, and so forth.
