The financial returns were very satisfactory.

RIDGELY

On Monday evening Mr. M. H. Swing, a Civil War veteran, entertained about one hundred and one of his many friends at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harry Swann, in honor of his 85th birthday. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with red, white and blue crepe paper and American flags. The immense birthday cake, baked by Cohee and Fox, our Ridgely bakers, was beautiful, having red, white and blue icing with 85 lighted candles of the same shades.

Rev. L. S. Matthews, H. L. Holsinger, M. E. Wheatley, S. A. Troxell and the Hon. Thomas A. Smith each gave a five minute talk on the life of Mr. Swing as they knew it. From the dining room rang the voices of Mr. Swings' children and their families, singing some of the old familiar songs that he loved to hear.

The colored band from Trinity furnished music throughout the evening. At a late hour every one departed, wishing Mr. Swing many more happy birthdays.
