

it is alleged that Patrolman Jackson, Southwestern District, was off his post and in the yard of house 1317 W.Pratt st., on Sunday, August 25th.,1912, I beg, respectfully, to invite attention to report of Detective George W. Armstrong who was detailed to make an investigation in this case.

From the report of Detective Armstrong I am inclined to believe that there is no foundation to the allegations made against Patrolman Jackson and I would therefore, respectfully, recommend that the communication be ignored and filed.

Very respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."
