WINNERS IN C. C. CONTEST GIVEN PARTY BY LOSERS

The two losing sides in the drive for membership of the Community Club entertained the two winning sides at a party in the club rooms last Tuesday evening. About 75 braved the storm and were well repaid by an evening of pure fun and nonsense.

The hostesses, captained by Mrs. F. R. Owens and Mrs. Howard Sullivan, were dressed for the occasion in special garments, some too long, and some too short, and of various kind and description. All wore earrings, and were painted and powdered to the limit. Exercising their privilege of initiating the losers, the winners, under Mrs. W. H. Anderson and Mrs. T. Alan Goldsborough, first stripped the hostesses of all jewelry and gaudy finery, and from some scrubbed the paint and powder in vigorous manner.

A short program had been prepared, calling for songs, dances, debates, and sundry foolish stunts. The losers submitted most gracefully to the demands of their guests, and enjoyed it fully as well.

Refreshments were served rather on the installment plan, for when a debate on "Resolved: That Women Should Smoke" was announced, olives on toothpicks were offered as pipes. All day suckers made the next course, and finally delicious lemonade and cake were served.

Some excitement was added by the uncertainty of the lights during the early part of the evening, a lantern and several flashlights rather contributing to the hilarity of the occasion, which was pronounced by all who attended as one of the funniest and most enjoyable in the club's experience.
