THIS HOARD WOULD HAVE DOUBLED IN VALUE—

Deposited in this bank at 4 per cent interest, the hoarded money which has been lying idle for years would have doubled in value instead of merely accumulating dust and cobwebs.

Happily not many persons today actually hoard money with the belief that it is safe from theft or accident.

Money need not be buried in old walls or cellars to be hoarded. It is hoarded money if it is idle money, useless money.

The safest way to make your money work for you and the community is to deposit it in the bank, where it is safe, draws interest, and helps build up the local community, thus enhancing the value of your property.

Our officails are business executives and can help to make your money work more profitably for you. Consult them without obligation.

Eastern Shore Happenings

Seaford, Del., May 14—James P. Morris, 32, of this town, was shot and mortally wounded last night, it is alleged by George Barber, a farmer at Slaughter Neck. The shooting occurred at the home of Barber, who is also known here, he having resided on a farm near Seaford previous to moving to Slaughter Neck. Morris was hurried to the Emergency Hospital, at Milford, where he died this afternoon. On his death bed he made a statement in which he said Barber did the shooting.

This is the third murder case in Sussex county within the last few weeks. Elihu Hudson was brutally murdered at Selbyville and William Ward, an aged merchant at Ward's, a small village near Delmar, also was killed.

Bowers Beach, Del., May 14—Seine fishermen of lower Delaware are having the best luck in many years in fishing for trout. For some undetermined reason the hardheads or crokers have this year failed to appear in large numbers and the trout are about in great abundance. Six crews are engaged in the fishing and the crew led by Captain J. H. Thompson last week netted 450 bushels of trout, for which the share of the men was $90 each. The price ranges from $1.25 to $3.50 a bushel and the fishermen have little trouble in disposing of the fish as soon as they are brought ashore.

A delegation appeared beore the Kent County Levy Court on Tuseday and requested that an improved road be constructed from Marydel running south about three miles in the fourth district. They claimed that the present road is in a very poor condition. The court requested Chief Engineer T. Marvel Gooden to inspect the road and report back at a future meeting.

Delmar, Del., May 14.—The Rev. Daniel Stocksley, pastor of Line Methodist Episcopal church, near Whiteville, Delaware, was attacked on the road last night, about midnight, by two men who beat him badly and robbed him of about $100. The attack was made while the Rev. Mr. Stosksley was endeavoring to get his car out of the mud.

Mr. Stocksley is a very muscular man, about 6 feet tall and weighs 180 pounds, so he was able to knock one o the thugs down during the encounter. It was too dark for him to recognize either of the assailants or even to determine whether they were black or white, he says, and he has no clue to their identity.

Easton, Md., May 11.—Seventy-eight cents increase in the price of 100 pounds of milk in the past seven months is what the members of the Interstate Milk Producers' Association have accomplished in Talbot county.

On October 1 last the dairymen of this county received an increase in the price of milk of 48 cents for 100 pounds of 4 per cent. milk, and, beginning with this month, a further increase of 30 cents is to be paid. This is regarded as a good record, in view of the fact that the Philadelphia market was well supplied with milk at the time these increases went into effect.

Plans were consummated at a meeting on Thursday, for additional loading facilities at Marion during the coming strawberry season, when Superintendent Davis of the Norfolk Division, Pennsylvania Railroad, held a conference with the leading fruit brokers and shippers of the Marion strawberry belt.

Superintendent Davis and Messrs. King, Rustine and Burbage, of the Pennsylvania system, held a meeting with the strawberry brokers and shippers, discussing plans for the coming season at Marion, which is the second greatest strawberry market in the country. The brokers and shippers at the meeting were John T. Handy John C. Horsey, W. R. Whittington, I. Henry Hall, Vance W. Miles, R. Bryce Whittington, Hall N. Miles and S. Frank Miles.

It was explained to the railroad officials that more railroad siding for the loading of this season's berry crop would be needed at Marion, where it is expected to ship 1000 cars and that probably as many as 100 cars would be loaded on the big shipping days. Lack of adequate siding has seriously hampered the loading in the past, and with the increased shipments expected this season, more room was said to be imperative.

The new Bethseda Methodist Church will be officially opened to its congregation on June 3d, according to an announcement made this week by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Richard L. Shipley. Salisbury will then have one of the most magnificent and commodious church edifices on the peninsula.

Carpenters are now rapidly completng the interior and the tile work was finished this week. Artists for the past two weeks are employed at decorating the large windows. These are of English Cathedral glass in imitation of antique with diamond shaped pane. Three superb picture windows have been installed in the front of the church, all of original design by P. L. Reaves, of Philadelphia. In composition and color they are of exceptional beauty and represent a real work of art.
