Transfer.

Upon the recommendation of the Captain of the Southern District, approved by the Marshal, it was ordered that Patrolman Rudolph O. Quandt, Southern District, be transferred from B. to A. Division; vice Patrolman William Warner, promoted; said transfer to take effect at once.

Beggars. - Vagrants.
Federated Charities.
St. Vincent de Paul Society.
Jewish Federated Charities.

In the matter of assignment of a patrolman in plain clothes in each of the several police districts temporarily as mendicancy officers to proceed along the lines suggested by and agreed upon with the Federated Charities, St. Vincent de Paul Society and Jewish Federated Charities, as referred to in the proceedings of previous dates, particularly July 17th., and 18th., and September 16th., 1912, the Board ordered that the assignment of patrolmen in each district, as determined upon, be put into operation at once;

That cases of vagrancy and beggary coming under the observation of the policemen in uniform on their respective posts be cared for as follows:

That uniformed officers in such instances shall pick up the offender and send him to the Station-house, to be thereat detained and looked after by the mendicancy officer of the district;

That the picking up of such persons by officers in uniform shall not be considered as arrests to be entered and placed before the Magistrate as is usual in cases of arrests, but that the person so detained shall be simply held in the Station-house until the mendicancy officer can be communicated with to take charge of the case and treat it in accordance with the scheme agreed upon with the Charity Organizations;

That the officer assigned in each district as mendicancy officer thereof shall be required to call into the Station-house at given intervals, that he may be promptly communicated with and called in as occasion may demand. (See Exhibit No. 3951.)
