Robert M'Clelland vs Samuel Wise.

Be it remembered, that heretofore to wit, on the seventh day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty two, Robert M'Clelland by Henry G. Sikes his attorney, prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of Appeals here a writ of the State of Maryland of Venditioni Exponas, to the Sheriff of Saint Mary's county directed, in the words and figures following to wit:

Maryland Sc. The State of Maryland, to Benjamin Gale Esquire Sheriff of Saint Mary's county greeting. Whereas at a County Court begun and held - Leonard Town in and for Saint Mary's county on the first Monday in March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine a certain Robert M'Clelland by judgment of the said Court recovered against a certain Samuel Wise late of said county as well the sum of five hundred dollars current money a certain debt, as the sum of one thousand dollars for his damages, which he had sustained, as well by reason of the detention of that debt, as seven dollars thirty eight and one third cents for his costs and charges by him about his suit, in that behalf laid out and expended, as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same Court brought before the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore, at the City of Annapolis, by reason of errors alleged to have been therein, manifestly appears: And whereas it hath been adjudged in the said Court of Appeals at the City of Annapolis aforesaid, on the first Monday in December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty that the said judgment, given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed and ratified, and that the said Robert M'Clelland might have execution against the said Samuel Wise for as well the debt damages costs and charges aforesaid, as adjudged unto him in the said County Court, as also for the sum of ten dollars and eighty two cents for his damages costs and charges by him sustained, by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid, by means of the prosecuting a certain appeal by the said Samuel Wise before the said Court of Appeals for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises, whereof the said Samuel Wise is convicted, as of record it likewise appeareth: And whereas also on the fourteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty one you were commanded, that of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the said Samuel Wise, being in your bailiwick, you should cause to be made the debt, damages, costs and charges aforesaid, and that you should have those sums before the said Court of Appeals to be held at the City of Annapolis on the first Monday in December then next, to render unto the said Robert M'Clelland the debt, damages costs and charges aforesaid. On which said first Monday in December in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty one, you made return to the said Court of Appeals, that by virtue of the said writ to you directed, for that purpose, you had taken, Part of Loughborough, Temple bar, Oxford and Addition, one hundred eighty eight and one half acres of land more or less, at $2.50 per acre, of the lands and tenements of the said Samuel Wise in your bailiwick being, to satisfy unto the said Robert M'Clelland the debt, damages, costs and charges aforesaid, in the said writ mentioned, which said lands and tenements remained in your hands unsold for want of buyers, so that the said debt, damages, costs and charges you could not have, as you were by the said writ commanded: therefore you are hereby commanded, that the said lands and tenements so as aforesaid taken, you expose to sale, and the money therefrom arising, you have before the said Court of Appeals to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second Monday in June next, to render unto the said Robert M'Clelland, the debt, damages costs and charges aforesaid, and all such costs as have accrued on the said writ of fieri facias; and how you shall execute this writ, you make appear unto the said Court of Appeals, at the place and on the day aforesaid, and have you then and there this writ.

Witness the Honorable John Buchanan Esquire Chief Judge of the said Court of Appeals the fifth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty one.

Issued the 7th day of May 1832.
