The confession of W B C Wathington taken before Jas. Young & — James Naylor, Henry McPherson

And whereas afterwards to wit on the 29th day of December 1828 the said William N Dorsett, W B C Wathington and Thomas J. Somervell have prayed an appeal to the next Court of Appeals and at the time of so doing filed in Court here a certain writing obligatory commonly called an appeal bond which being approved is in form following to wit.

Know all men by these presents that we William N Dorsett Thomas J Somervell, Walter B C Wathington, Philemon Chew and Josias Young all of Prince George's county in the State of Maryland are held and firmly bound unto William D Digges of the county and State aforesaid in the full and just sum of thirteen thousand dollars current money to be paid to the said William D Digges or to his certain attorney, executors administrators or assigns, to the payment whereof we bind ourselves and each of us our and each of our heirs executors and administrators in and for the whole jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this thirteenth day of December eighteen hundred and twenty eight. From which said judgment so as aforesaid rendered and confessed the said William N Dorsett Thomas J Somervell and Walter B C Wathington have prayed an appeal to the next Court of Appeals for the Western Shore of the State of Maryland. Now the condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound William N Dorsett, Thomas J Somervell and Walter B C Wathington shall not cause a transcript of the record and proceedings of the said judgment to be transmitted to the Court of Appeals to be holden for the Western Shore within the time required by law and prosecute the said appeal with effect and also satisfy and pay unto the said William D Digges his executors administrators or assigns in case the said judgment shall be affirmed as well all and singular the debt damages and costs adjudged by the County Court aforesaid as also all costs and damages that shall be awarded by the said Court of Appeals then this bond to be and remain in full force and virtue otherwise of no effect
