

Patrolman Timothy Ryan.
Complaint of Mrs. Johana Reichert.

Report, as follows, from the Marshal, was read and ordered filed without further action:-

"Baltimore, Md., September 23, 1912.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners.

Gentlemen:-

Referring to the enclosed complaint made by Mrs. Johana Reichert, 1419 W. Pratt street, and in which it is alleged that Patrolman Timothy Ryan, Southern District, insulted her by calling her names and shaking his espantoon in her face, beg to say that as there were no witnesses and Patrolman Ryan absolutely denies the allegation, I would respectfully recommend that Mrs. Reichert's complaint be ignored and filed.

It is only a matter of veracity between Patrolman Ryan and Mrs. Reichert, and further, as Patrolman Ryan is a very reputable officer, hence this recommendation.

Very respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."

(See Exhibit No. 4191.)

Holliday Street Theatre.
Used by Socialist Party.
September 22, 1912.

Report, as follows, from the Marshal, was read and ordered filed:

"Baltimore, Md., September 24th., 1912.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners.

Gentlemen:-

I am enclosing, herewith, report of Captain George G. Henry, Central District, with respect to the opening of an opera house on Sunday, September 22nd., 1912. (Holliday street Theatre).

While no direct admission was charged, all persons who entered were requested to make a contribution, but in the event they declined to do so admission was not refused.

In my judgment the opening of this opera house was in violation of law inasmuch that certain admission fees were charged.