

General Manager Burke, and told him the same thing. He told me he was working under the advice of his attorney, Mr. Williams.

Regarding the article in the Philadelphia North American, that some of the Baltimore Policemen were betting on the horses last Monday, I made an investigation of the matter and find out that there was no truth in the article.

Very respectfully,

JAMES MANNING, Deputy Marshal."

Pembroke W. Pitt,
Reward for Apprehension.

A communication, as follows, was received, together with the check therein referred to:-

"Baltimore, Md., September 23, 1912.

Board of Police Commissioners of Baltimore City.

Baltimore, Md.

Gentlemen:-

We herewith hand you memorandum check for $400.00, and would ask, if consistent with your regulations, that you distribute, in the following manner:-

$200. to Detective Charles A. Kahler,
$100. to Detective Peter Bradley,
$100. to cover reward offered by the banks for the capture of Pitt, and which we understand is to go to the authorities of Naples.

The several banks interested in this matter, namely, The National Park Bank of New York, First National Bank of Baltimore, Farmers & Merchants National Bank of Baltimore, National Bank of Commerce of Baltimore, and ourselves feel that the good work which the detectives did in this matter deserves some recognition from us, and we would appreciate it very much if you can see your way clear to distribute the money as suggested above.

Yours very truly,

W. BERNARD DUKE, Vice-President."

The Board decided to accept the check and distribute the money as requested in letter as above. (See Donation File.) Also Exhibit No. 4152.)

Donations.

It was ordered that Lieutenant Samuel W. House and Patrolman James
