

Patrolman Charles J. Kneavel.
Request to lay Claim for Reward.

Recommendation made by the Marshal in report, as follows, was approved:-

"Baltimore, Md., September 25th., 1912.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners.

Gentlemen:-

I beg, respectfully, to forward, herewith, communication received by Patrolman Charles J. Kneavel, Northeastern District, from A. M. Sanders, Deputy Sheriff, Smithfield, N.C., as also a report from Patrolman Kneavel, in respect to the arrest of one Needham Hall, colored, wanted in Johnson County, North Carolina, on the charge of murder, and for whose arrest a reward of Two Hundred Dollars was offered.

Inasmuch as Patrolman Kneavel effected the arrest, (through information received), of Bell, I would respectfully recommend that he be permitted to make claim for the reward on Governor William W. Ritchen, Raleigh, N.C.

Very respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."

(See Exhibit No. 4195.)

License, - Private Detective.

It was ordered that the application of William B. Romans for license to operate as a Private Detective in Baltimore City, for the balance of year 1912, be granted.

Telephones in Bawdy Houses.

In the matter of telephones in bawdy houses, as referred to in the proceedings of September 5th., and 11th., 1912, the Secretary handed the Board notices signed by the keepers of bawdy houses having telephones ^{at} by persons ~~in~~ whose name such telephone contract stands, addressed to the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Company to remove telephones from bawdy houses.

The Secretary was directed to send the said notices to the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Company that the telephones may be removed in
