FEDERALSBURG

Woman's Club Activities

At its regular meeting, Wednesday November 28, the Woman's Club heard a comprehending and interesting report of the County Federation club meeting, at Hillsboro, reported by Mrs. H .H. Long.

The club decided a community Christmas tree should be a feature of holiday time here: The president, Mrs. A. D. Davis, appointed a committee to seek a tree already standing, with the possibility of wiring it for the purpose. Christmas carols will be rehearsed at the club meetings.

The matter of using the official songbook of the federated clubs was favorably acted upon and club membres purchased these with a view to using them in the regular weekly meeting?

Mrs. Robert Eadington, who was in charge of the afternoon's program, gave a grief but interesting history of American musical composers, while Mrs. Orlando McClure, Miss Francess Hackett and Miss Elizabeth Willoughby gave respectively a selection from the three composers, McDowell, Ethelbert Nevin, and the last being vocal.

The clubmembers then sang their club song.

Coming Operette

The Federalsburg high school glee club, under the direction of Miss Mary Davis, is working to produce an operoperette about the middle fo December, "The Witch of Fairy Dell", as the operette is called, will include fifty girls in caste and choruses and promises to be a production full of melody, color and charm. Aside from the entertaining story which unfolds there will be countless solos, duets, trios, quartettes and ensembles and three and four part choruses, such as this unusually fine musical club is capable of producing. The production also includes number of folk dances with delightful setting and costumes peasant girls, witches, fairies, etc.

The proceeds will go toward buying a curtain for the school auditorium.
