H. Gough and Robert Manning by Luke C. Barber and John M. Sleasin their attorneys as the said State of Maryland by Benjamin G. Harris its attorney; and thereupon on motion of the said State of Maryland by its attorney aforesaid, it is ruled by the Court here that the said Stephen H. Gough and Robert Manning assign the errors in the record of proceedings aforesaid or in the giving the judgment aforesaid so as aforesaid brought before the Court of Appeals here for correcting the errors supposed to be therein or judgment by the Court by the Court of Appeals here will be entered against them in default thereof and the said Stephen H. Gough and Robert Manning by their attorneys aforesaid say that in the record of proceedings aforesaid and also in the giving of judgment aforesaid there is manifest error in this, to wit, that by the record aforesaid it appears that the judgment aforesaid in the plea aforesaid given was given for the said State of Maryland against the said Stephen H. Gough and Robert Manning when by the law of the land that judgment ought to have been given for the said Stephen H. Gough and Robert Manning against the said State of Maryland therefore in that there is manifest error, and they pray that the judgment aforesaid for that error and others being in the record of proceedings aforesaid may be reversed annulled and held entirely as void, and that they the said Stephen H. Gough and Robert Manning may be restored to all things which they have lost by occasion of the said judgment and that the said State of Maryland may rejoin to the errors aforesaid and so forth. And thereupon it is ruled by the Court of Appeals here, that the said State of Maryland join in the errors by the said Stephen H. Gough and Robert Manning above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid or judgment by the Court of Appeals here will be rendered against it in default thereof; and the said State of Maryland by its attorney aforesaid prays that a day may be given to it to join in the error by the said Stephen H. Gough and Robert Manning above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid until the first Monday in December next, and to it is granted, the same day is also given to the said Stephen H. Gough and Robert Manning. At which said first Monday in December being the fourth day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven which said day was given to the said State of Maryland to join in the errors by the said Stephen H. Gough and Robert Manning above assigned come again into the Court of Appeals here the parties aforesaid by their attorneys aforesaid; and the said State of Maryland by its attorney aforesaid says there is no error in the record of proceedings aforesaid nor in the giving of the judgment aforesaid and it prays that the Court of Appeals here will proceed to the examination as well of the record of proceedings aforesaid as of the matters aforesaid by the said Stephen H. Gough and Robert Manning above for error assigned and that the said judgment may be in all things affirmed and so forth: Thereupon further process of and upon the premises between the parties aforesaid is by virtue of an act of Assembly in such case made and provided further continued before the Court of Appeals here until the second Monday in June next, the same day is given to the said parties there then to hear the judgment of the Court of Appeals here of and upon the said premises and so forth: And now at this day, to wit, the said second Monday in June being the eleventh day of the said said month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty eight come again into the Court of Appeals here the parties aforesaid by their attorneys aforesaid; and the said State of Maryland by its attorney aforesaid offers itself against the said Stephen H. Gough and Robert Manning of and upon the premises and prays that the Court of Appeals here will proceed to the examination as well of the record of proceedings aforesaid as of the matters above for error assigned and that the said judgment may be in all things affirmed and so forth; and for as much as the said Stephen H. Gough and Robert Manning doth not allege to the Court of Appeals here, any matter or thing for the reversal of the judgment aforesaid, now insist upon the matters aforesaid by them above for error assigned. Therefore it is considered by the Court of Appeals here, that the judgment aforesaid in form aforesaid given be in all things affirmed and stand in full force and effect the said causes above for error assigned in anywise notwithstanding; and it is further considered by the Court of Appeals here, that the said State of Maryland have execution against the said Stephen H. Gough and Robert Manning as well for the debt damages costs and charges aforesaid so as aforesaid adjudged unto it in the said County Court of Saint Marys County as also for the sum of thirteen dollars and seven cents adjudged unto it by the Court of Appeals here on its assent for its costs and charges which it sustained by occasion of the delay of the execution of the judgment aforesaid by pretext of the prosecution of the said appeal by the said Stephen H. Gough and Robert Manning for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises as aforesaid, prosecuted and so forth.

Memorandum - Judgment was affirmed nisi in this case and made absolute on the 10th day of July eighteen hundred and thirty eight and execution awarded for the sum of nine thousand two hundred and twenty two dollars current money - Debt fourteen dollars twenty three and one third cents costs and costs - To be released upon the payment of nine hundred and eighty three dollars and eighty and four fifths cents with interest thereon from the seventy fourth of December eighteen hundred and thirty two til paid and the above costs and costs.

Test, Richard M. Gill, Clerk.
