Mr. G. C. Johnson's mother spent last week with him.

Mr. J. Frank Lane and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Lane's parents at Elkton. While there Mrs. Lane's foot caught in a hole in the porch floor and sprained her ankle.

Mr. Clayton Cole had a narrow escape last week from what might have been a serious accident. Mr. Cole and Jack Dhue were teaching a man and his son to run a tractor. The young man was in the seat and Jack was giving him instructions. Mr. Cole was standing behind the tractor, and the young man by mistake reversed the machine and the wheel knocked Mr. Cole down but he had presence of mind to turn his body and the wheel ran over both legs. Fortunately no bones were broken, and Mr. Cole was not seriously hurt. Warning: don't stand in front or behind of Mr. Ford, you never know which way he is going.
