SUMMER BIBLE CONFERENCES IN JULY AND AUGUST

The Eagles Mere, Pa. Summer Bible Conference will convene for its eighth season under direction of The Moody Bible Institute from July 8 to 17. Its unusual attractions of mountain breezes, forest shade and lake sports are enhanced by the mid-July heat elsewhere. The speakers will be Rev. W. Graham Scroggie, eminent Bible teacher of Great Britain, Prof. Leander S. Keyser, D.D., of Wittenberg College, Rev. Ford Ottman, D.D., of the Stony Brook Assembly, Rev. Charles E. Hurlburt of the Africa Inland Mission, with Rev. James M. Gray, D.D., and Rev. R. H. Glover, M. D. of the Moody Bible Institute.

Another successful Eastern Bible Conference will be repeated August 3 to 13 for the fourth season at Ocean City, N. J., that alluring and delightful insland retreat near Alantic City. Here Dr. James M. Gray will deliver four masterly lectures, Rev. L. W. Gosnell of the Institute faculty will be heard, with Henry Ostrom, D.D., successful evangelist and Rev. Harold Paul Sloam, D.D., a virile leader of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

July 14 to 24 an inspiring conference known as the Ministerial Institute will be held at Montrose, Pa. Two distinguished speakers will be Dr. James Gray, President of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, and Dr. R. A. Torrey of the Bible Institute of Los Angeles.

Arrangements are about completed for the entertainment of the 33rd Annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Eastern Shore District, M. E. Church, South, Salisbury, May 13-15. Mrs. I. E. Jones, is general chairman of the Committee on Arrangements, and Mrs. R. McKenny Price, chairman of the Tomes Committee. About 200 delegates are expected to be in attendance, the district including the Eastern Shore of Virginia and part of Maryland.
