CAROLINE OVERRIDES NEAR EAST QUOTA

Caroline county has achieved a total credit of $3,191.56 contribution to the Near East Relief Fund: $903.31 in cash and $2,288.25 in clothing, food and supplies. Of course this carries Caroline "over the top." But to go over the top does not end the offensive in warfare. It only opens the way to visualize the situation more fully and enable the forces to go on to the successful achievement of their objective.

We cannot think of stopping now that we have gone "over the top." The emergency is not past. Children are dying every day in the Near East from lack of food. We quote Mr. Allen who has just returned from over there: "It is a fight for the survival of the fittest in that land. I have borrowed money to contribute to the Near East Relief and wish I had more to give than I have. I am not a crank on this subject but I have picked it out as one of the most deserved efforts because it deals mainly with childhood. The correction of the situation over there must begin with the generation that is now coming on."

Mrs. Evelyn Harris, our regional chairman, though detained at her home since her recent bereavement, is still taking great interest in the work and writes to her friends in Caroline county urging that those who have pledged will put forth extra effort at this time to get the amount paid in and those who have not pledged should see our county treasurer, Mr. W. I. Norris, cashier of the Denton National Bank, and get in line to do their share i nthis work.

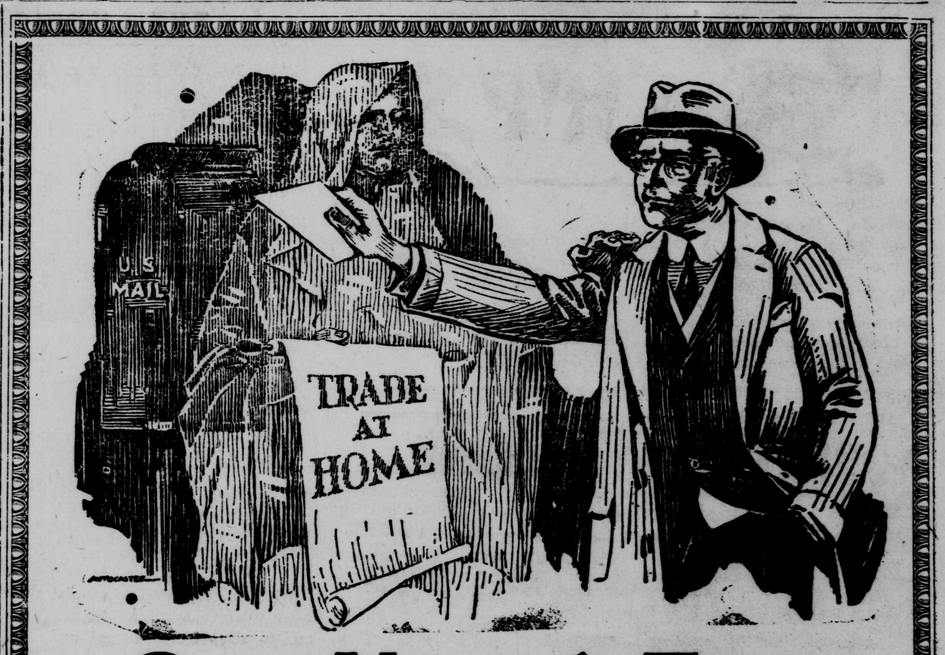
"Clipping coupons" is always an interesting occupation and it is really a good thing to get the habit. Ask Mr. Norris for one of the "rolls", beautiful little art strip to hang up in your home and every month you clip your coupon and paste it in a space designed for it—interesting and a good investment, too.

A Kansas editor has well said of the Near East Relief movement:

"America has not done anything finer in all her history than the constructive work that is now going on in Armenia."

COMMUNITY CLUB

The regular meeting of the Denton Community Club was held in the club room, Thursday, May 15 instead of Friday on account of the county athletic meet being on Friday. The attendance was smaller than usual but a very enjoyable session was held at this meeting the tickets were distributed for the entertainment to be given June 2nd by the Club. This is one of the big events of the year, and we hope all the members and friends will help by buying tickets and going. The Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. P. Fisher Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Lucas and Mrs. Johnson.



Once Upon A Time

Not so many, many years ago there was a man in a town just about the size of Denton.

He was an honest man and he tried hard to be a good citizen.

So he formed the habit of pausing each evening to review and think over his deeds of the day and resolve to correct such as did not bear the stamp of good citizenship.

By and by came the day when he felt his acts and dealings were above criticism and he was happy as he mingled with his fellow-townsmen.

All went well for some time—but one day he suddenly realized he was not as happy as he first thought.

The habit formed of self-questioning had not rusted or broken through disuse. Instead it was very much alive and active and he became aware that unconsciously he had been weighing himself, and some place, he knew not where, he was found wanting.

What it was he could not for the life of him tell, and his was a troubled brow as he wended his way to the corner mail box.

But the man did not drop the letter he carried into the mail box. Conscience stepped in and told him his lack in citizenship.

It was in his failure to spend all of his money at home: Money earned there; and money that would go right back toward making his a better town in which to live, if spent at home.

He destroyed the mail order letter.

His resolve then made was to never again patronize mail order houses and the nearby big city stores—but to do all of his trading at home.

Then he was a happy man.

And his town grew.

NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORY OUT

Manager R. C. Harris Asks Subscribers to Use Numbers

The delivery of the telephone directory of the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Company has just been completed in the five counties and R. C. Harris, manager says that it will be helpful to the company if all the users would refer to the directory before making a call and give the operator the number of the party desired and not the name.

Continuing, Mr. Harris said: "Frequently subscribers will call the name instead of by number and this makes added work for the operators, causing an unnecessary delay in the completion of calls. He explains that, when the operators are given the name instead of the number, it is necessary for her to refer to the directory to obtain the number before the call may be completed, as the operator cannot be expected to remember the telephone number of each subscriber."
