I would be glad to know the Adjutant General's opinion on the subject of Capt. Macky and his Riflemen — whether or not they will be received. The irregularity in the manner in which the non-commissioned officers are brought forward is owing to the neglect of the officers in the 30th Regt. in appointing those officers in their particular companies. I have however deducted the number and brought forward in the several aggregate above the full number of non-commissioned officers.

I take ^{the liberty} of soliciting information from you on the subject of some disputes that exist in this Brigade between the officers of different
