
REVIVAL SERVICES AT CHURCH OF BRETHERN

Evangelist J. Kurtz Miller of Hagerstown, Md., will conduct revival services at the Church of the Brethern beginning August 10th and continuing at least two weeks.

The successful tent meetng conducted here by Rev. Miller some years ago will be recalled by some, at which time large audiences enjoyed his powerful sermons. The accompaning "Bible Plan of the Ages" prepared by Rev. Miller will show his grasp upon some of the so called mysteries of the Word. During the first week Rev. Miller will develop his outline with a series of sermons. A 15-foot chart presentation.

Other vital subjects what will be ably presented are: "How to Know God," "How to Pray," "How to Live," "What is the Soul," Can a Man Be Perfect," "The Supreme Task," "What Has God Done With Your Forgiven Sins," "The Heart of the Gospel."

The public is most cordially invited to come out and enjoy this spiritual feast. Song service at 7:45 preaching 8:00.

FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS PICNIC

The annual picnic of the Caroline County Federation of Women's Clubs will be held August 7th, at Choptank Park.

The program will be as follows:

1:30—Community Singing, led by Mrs. John Groff, president of Women's Club, Cambridge, Md.

Welcome Address—J. F. Spence.

Introduction to Clubs of Miss Bessie Spafford, home demonstration agent. Address, Mr. Jump, supervisor of Wyoming School.

Solo, Mrs. John Groff.

Lecture, Dr. Thomas B. Symons, Director of Extension Service, College Park.

Singing, Federation.

Adjournment.

SPENT SUNDAY AT REHOBOTH

Many took advantage of the beautiful weather Sunday to motor to Rehoboth for the day. Among the Dentonians there were Mr. and Mrs. William Rickards and Miss Dorothy Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Dukes Roe and Mrs. E. G. Norman; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cooper; Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Green; Mr. and Mrs. Woodall Green and children; Mr. George Deakyne, Mr. Clay Hobbs, Mr. Austin Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Parker, Joseph Lee and Mrs. M. M. Corkran, Mrs. I. S. Hollingsworth, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Kimmey, Mr. and Mrs. John George, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll George, Miss Helen Hagadone, Mr. Philip Nuttle, Mr. and Mrs. William Wooters, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Marc Breeding.

We print everything but money and postage stamps.

WILL GIVE AWAY BABY CARRIAGE

During this week and next, while the Everybody Bargain Festival is on, all mothers with babies under two years are urged to hand in the name of the baby and the mother's name and address to any of the clerks in the 5c to $1.00 Store. During the afternoon of Saturday, August 9th, some little child will draw a name from the names turned in and the name of the baby drawn will receive free, a new Lloyd Loom Products baby carriage, which is on display at the store.

There are no strings attached. You do not have to buy a cake of soap and fill in the coupon. All you have to do is to write your name and address and the name of your baby and hand it in.

The 5c to $1.00 store is having a big time during these two weeks at the Everybody Bargain Festival. If you haven't been there, better get in the swim.

"BARNYARD GOLF" FEATURE OF FARM PICNIC

Do not forget the Farm Bureau Picnic to be held at Concord Camp Ground on Friday, August 8th. During the forenoon beginning at 9:30 a. m. there will be a dairy judging contest for the boys of Caroline county. Cash prizes will be given for the four boys making the highest score. Also, the three boys will compose the judging team to represent Caroline county in the State contest.

Cash prizes will be given for the best calves exhibited and owned by county club members.

Much interest is being aroused in the "Barnyard Golf" tournament for the silver cup and the county Farm Bureau Championship.

An orchestra has been engaged to furnish music during the afternoon.

Mr. Gelder, chairman of the State Canning crops committee and Mrs. Jones, president of the woman's branch of the Maryland Farm Bueau will be the main speakers of the afternoon. Come and bring your neighbor.

CLERGYMEN GATHER IN M. P. CONFERENCE

Westminster, Md., July 28—The fourteenth annual conference of the Methodist Protestant ministers was called to order here tonight when the Rev. Dr. G. L. Humphreys, president of the annual conference, addressed the delegates. His subject was "The Measure of a Man."

The Young People's Institute of the Methodist Protestant Church also is holding its annual meeting.

Sessions of both associations will be held daily until Sunday in the Westminster Theological Seminary. The delegates to both conferences are lodged in the college building and use the dining rooms of Western Maryland College.

TEACHERS APPOINTED FOR CO. SCHOOLS

Marydel—Maud Hummer.

Henderson—C. M. Wingate, principal; Grace Rutter, David McMenamin, Ruth McGrea, Ruth Cole, Elsie Bilbrough.

Bee Tree—Edith Richard.

Goldsboro—Bertha Shull, principal; Lillie Doty, Minerva Reber.

Baltimore Corner—Katherine Beatty.

Moore's—Eva Williamson, principal; Elizabeth Evans.

Greensboro—P. C. Phillips, principal; Helen Mills, Helen Weaver, Mrs. Clara Wing, Elsie Roe, Mrs. L. C. Weaver, Lola Mitchell, Mrs. B. C. Beckham, Gertrude Morgan, Blanche Chaffinch.

Bridgetown—Bertie M. Sparks.

Garey's—Mrs. Katherine Spence.

Camp Grove—Ruth Johnston.

Burrsville—Sue Wright.

Liden's—Ida M. Culver.

Central—Mrs. Hester R. Wyatt.

Caroline High—A. L. Leary, principal; Mrs. Elizabeth Pippin, Stephanie Ford, Carlotta Kinnamon, Dorothy E. Webster, Mildred B. Nuttle, Ruth Noble, Mrs. Mary B. Rairigh, Elizabeth Bryan, Virginia Davis.

Denton Primary — Laura Melvin principal; Louise Short, Sadie Allen, Hilda Cade.

Williamson—Nellie West.

Oaks—Esther Willey.

Williston—Elizabeth Cannon.

Willoughby—Esther Kelley.

Andersontown—Ruth Trice.

Hickman—Hazel Brown.

Harmony—Alma Dean, principal; Mildred Collins.

Smithson—Elsa L. Rieck, principal; Adela Rieck.

Preston—H. A. Kinhart, principal; Katherine Cox, Mrs. Mary T. Elzey, Mrs. Elva Butler, Mrs. Bertie Lednum, Louise Norris, Mrs. Pearl Wright Helen Kemp.

Choptank—Rebecca Hurst.

Hubbard's—Inez Marine.

Bethlehem—Alma Baker.

Federalsburg—B. C. Willis, principal; Margaret Custis, Travis Bolin, Wilmer F. Davis, Blanche Jackson, Victor R. Fritz, Louise Nuttle, Caroline Davis, Hilda Elben, Maude Ford, Mrs. Susan Griffith, Alice Harper, Christine Wilson.

Hickory Hill—Mrs. Bessie Wilson.

Houstan's Branch—Rita Hallowell.

Hillsboro—Mrs. Josephine Blades, Ethel Eveland.

Cedar Grove—Mrs. Hazel Coleman.

Ridgely High—Mrs. Mary D. Wooters, Mildred Massey, Paul Hoffmaster, Mrs. Alma Clarke, Mary E. Laird.

Ridgely Primary—Mrs. S. E. Parsons, principal; Irma Nichols, Mrs. Grace Johnson, Mrs. Charlotte Stayer.

Laurel Grove—Mrs. Mary J. Howard

Concord—Mrs. Alice Hignutt.

Smithville—Mildred Norris.

Chestnut Grove—Mrs. Myrtle Hignutt.

Friendship — Mrs. Orath Taylor, Margaret Cook.

American Corner—Mrs. Grace Sullivan.

Howard's—Mrs. Alice Trice.

More than 100 ministers and their wives have registered for the conference. About 300 delegates are expected to attend the young people's meetings.

The institute delegates are taking a four-year course in young people's work and Bible study Graduates will be given diplomas at commencement exercises next Sunday morning.

LUTHERAN CHILDRENS'—MISSION DAY AT GREENSBORO, AUG. 3

On Sunday, next, August 3d, at 2 p. m. the Ev. Lutheran Cordova-Denton-Greensboro parish of the Maryland Synod of the "United Lutheran Church of America" will celebrate its annual childrens' Mission Festival at their pastor's home, Drews' Manor, formerly known as the old "Zackarias' Mill" on the state road halfway between Denton and Greensboro.

St. Paul's Ev. Lutheran congregation of Cordova, Talbot county will turn out in full force assisting the newly established Ev. Lutheran Emmunal's Mission of Denton-Greensboro while its Sunday school will render for this occassion a missionary program of recitations and songs. The public speakers of the day will be: the Rev. John Weidley, D. D. of Washington, D. C., president of the Maryland Synod of the U. L. C. A. and the Revs. W. K. Schmitt and W. A. Wade of Baltimore, addressing the audience in behalf of home and foreign missions.

After the services, to be held outdoors, for which seating capacity will be provided for on the lawn in front of the house, general picnicing will be enjoyed by young and old right at nature's bosoom.

The cold-sweets of an ice cream stand erected on the premises will refreshen those caring for it, while the proceeds of same will be added to the collection of the day for the general Mission fund of the U. L. C. A. All true friends of Jesus of the whole vicinity are herewith most cordially invited to join in with us for the glory of God and salvation of men, so helping to fulfill the second petition of our Lord's prayer: "Thy Kingdom Come," by assisting in prayers, and contributing freely to the collection to be taken up during the services for the home and foreign missions of the U. L. C. A.

Praying for the Lord's richest blessings to be bestowed upon each and everyone participating,

I remain sincerely, yours for services in Christ,

Therman Drews,

pastor of St. Paul's-Cordova and appointed missionary for the Denton-Greensboro district.

HARMONY

Mr. and Mrs. Alonza Christopher and daughter of Berlin, Md. and Mrs. Andrew Christopher, of Hurlock were the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Christopher on Sunday.

Mrs. Ada Baker's sister's family from Washington, D. C., spent Sunday with her and her daughters, Evelyn and Blanch accompanied them home for a visit in Washington.

Mrs. Fred Mulligan and Mrs. Anna Mulligan and sons called on old friends here on Tuesday.

Mrs. Towers Todd spent last week with her sister in Marcus Hook.

REV. ZEIGLER LEAVES FOR PENNA. CHURCH

Mr. Levi K. Zeigler, who resigned as pastor of the Denton Church of the Brethren, effective July 1st, will leave this section at the end of the week or the first of next week to take up his new pastorate at Williamsburg, Pa., where he will do part time work and also attend Juniata College at Huntington, Pa. for the next year or two.

Mr. Zeigler has been pastor here since March, 1919, and has become well known in this locality. It is with regret that his many friends hear of his determination to seek other fields of endeavor.

Mr. Zeigler, while born in Pennsylvania, came here as a child and was brought up in this section, receiving his education in the local schools, going from them to Elizabethtown College, Elizabethtown, Pa. After taking his college work, Mr. Zeigler had a pastorate at Shamokin, Pa., for three years, following which he returned to Denton. During his stay here many accessions to the local church have been due to his influence

Mr. S. I. Arnold, of Cedar Point, Kan., will take his place.

CLUB WEEK TO BE WELL ATTENDED

A number of the boys and girls of this county are planning to attend Club Week at the University of Maryland, College Park. Club Week starts on August 7th and ends August 12th. The State Official reports that indications are the Club Week will be better and more interesting than ever this year, also, a larger attendance is expected.

Boys' Club Returns

After ten days of wholesome camp life at Williston lake the Boys Club of Christ Church broke camp and returned to Denton, Monday night. During the time many parents and friends have visited the boys, while on Sunday the Rev. Mr. McGrew, rector of Christ Church, held a service at the camp in the afternoon, which many of the church members attended.

TUESDAY IS SUNDAY SCHOOL DAY AT CONCORD CAMP

Tuesday August 5th will be Sunday school day at Concord Camp and every Sunday School in the county is urged to have as large an attendance present as possible, especially of the young people and young people's department workers.

A special program has been prepared for the occasion and at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:45 o'clock in the evening, Mrs. A. W. Karnell of Philadelphia will speak.

Her theme in the afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, will be "Religious Education in the Home." At night, 7:45 o'clock, "Building a Christian Nation."

Mrs. Karnell is a speaker of international reputation and handles her problems with authority, eloquence and power. She is in constant demand wherever public conscience is awakened to the supreme need of the universe.

Bring your lunch and come prepared to spend the whole day and evening. It will be an occasion worth while and long remembered.

Engraved stationery and calling cards at The American Union.

HAVE YOUR OLD STYLE WEDDING RING

MODERNIZED

BRING YOUR RING TO US AND WE WILL COVER IT WITH PLATINUM OR WHITE GOLD AND DECORATE IT WITH A BEAUTIFUL HAND CARVED DESIGN OUR METHOD AND WORKMANSHIP ARE GUARANTEED TO BE FAR SUPERIOR TO THAT OBTAINABLE ELSEWHERE.

F. J. WRIGHT
Jeweler

BABY CARRIAGE to be GIVEN AWAY

A standard size new Lloyd Loom Product Baby Carriage will be given to the lucky baby whose name is drawn, August 9th.

Mothers hand in your baby's name (under 2 years old) and your name any time during this week and next. There are no strings attached, simply hand in your names.

EVERYBODY BARGAIN FESTIVAL

5c to $1.00 Store

OUR ANNUAL AUGUST SALE

Special REDUCED Prices

ON EVERYTHING IN OUR STORE

This means Everything for the Home. Our Slogan, "If its for the Home, we have it." Our Motto, "Service and Satisfaction."

Phones: Store 130
Residence 81-J

M. K. NEWNAM,
Denton, Md.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2929_scm3547-0253.jpg