John Patrick for as well the sum of four hundred & sixteen dollars 33¾ cents current money a certain debt, as the sum of two hundred dollars & also $9-56⅔ cents which unto the said Hackett & Carson Exors as aforesd was by the said County Court adjudged, as well for their damages which they had sustained by reason of the detention of that debt, as for their costs and charges by them about their suit in that behalf laid out & expended, whereof the said John Patrick is convicted, as by the record and proceedings of the said County Court, which was lately caused to be brought into the Court of Appeals, held for the Eastern Shore of the said State, at Easton in Talbot County, for certain causes of error in the same to be corrected is manifest. And whereas also, afterwards, to wit, in the said Court of Appeals, held for the Eastern Shore of the said State at Easton in Talbot County, on the first Monday of June in the year of our Lord 1821, the said Hackett & Carson did recover Judgment against the said John Patrick for one other sum of Nine dollars sixty eight & one third cents, which unto the said Hackett & Carson was by the said Court of Appeals adjudged for their costs and charges which they had sustained by reason of the delay of the execution of the Judgment aforesaid by pretence of prosecuting an Appeal of and upon the said Judgment, by him the said John Patrick, before the said Court of Appeals, whereon that judgment was by the said Court of Appeals in all things affirmed as by the record and proceedings of the said Court of Appeals manifestly appears. And whereas you were heretofore, to wit, on the 26th day of July in the year of our Lord 1821, commanded that of the goods & Chattels lands & tenements of the said John Patrick if in your bailiwick they should be found, you should cause to be made & levied as well the debt aforesaid as the damages costs and charges aforesaid: And when you had the same so made and levied or any part thereof, the same in your custody should safely keep, so that you might have the same before the Judges of the Court of Appeals to be held for the Eastern Shore of the said State at Easton in Talbot County, on the last Monday of November then next following to satisfy unto the said Hackett & Carson Executors as aforesaid the debt, damages, costs and charges aforesaid and that thereof you should not fail at your peril, and that you should have then and there that writ. At which day, to wit, the last Monday of November, in the year 1821, you made return thereof to our said Judges, that by virtue of the writ aforesaid to you directed you had taken in execution certain goods & Chattels lands & tenements of the said John Patrick to wit, "All his right title, claim and interest in & to one farm called "Blandent part" "Containing eighty acres lying & being in Queen Anne's County, be the same more or less; one negro "Man named Clymis one detto detto named Bill" which said goods & Chattels lands & tenements remained in your hands for want of buyers. We therefore command you, that you sell or cause to be sold the said goods & Chattels, lands & tenements and every part thereof, and the sum of Money arising therefrom, you have before the Judges of the Court of Appeals, to be held for the Eastern Shore of the said State at Easton in Talbot County on the first Monday of June next to satisfy unto the said Hackett & Carson the debt damages costs & charges aforesaid. Hereof fail not at your peril, and have you then and there this writ. Witness the Honorable Jeremiah T. Chase Esquire Chief Judge of our said Court, the 20th day of November 1822. Issued the 9th day of December 1822. (Sd) James Parrott Clk. —

At which said first Monday in June being the second day of the said Month, ~~in the year of our Lord~~ Eighteen hundred and twenty three, and the return day of the aforegoing writ, comes in the Court of Appeals here the said John Hackett & Robert Carson Exors as aforesaid by their Attorney aforesaid and Nathan Betton Esquire late Sheriff of Queen Anne's County to whom the said writ was in form aforesaid makes return thereof to the Court of Appeals here thus endorsed to wit.
