TOWN & COUNTY Personalographs

Mr. William Gootee is quite ill this week.

Mr. George King was in Marydel on Wednesday.

Mr. William H. Anderson was on the sick list on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Blake were Cambridge visitors Tuesday.

Miss Elizabeth MacDonald was in Harrington on Wedensday.

Mrs. Wright Garton entertained the bridge club this afternon.

Miss Mildred Plummer is able to be out again after her recent illness.

Did you register Tuesday? If not, don't fail to do it next Tuesday.

Mrs. Homer Rice went to Cambridge this afternoon for a visit.

Mrs. Cecil Blake and Mrs. William Bradley were Ridgely visitors Friday.

Miss Margaret Thawley spent the week end in Burrsville with her parents.

Mrs. J. V. Moore and children will spend the week end with her parents in Seaford.

Mrs. Lester Everngam returned on Friday from a visit of several days in Baltimore.

Mrs. Myra Jackson spent the week end in Goldsboro as the guest of Mrs. J. H. Schooley.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Plummer have moved into the Dever house, on the Court House square.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley E. Thawley and children spent Sunday with Mr. Thawley's parents in Burrsville.

Mrs. W. C. Beckwith on Wednesday suffered a very severe stroke and her condition today is critical.

Master B. Sargent Wells, Jr., of Baltimore, is the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Everngam

Mr. Hugh Ramsdell has returned home after spending the summer in Doylestown, Pa., and St. Paul, Minn.

The rummage sale and bake given last Saturday by the Women's Auxiliary of Christ Church netted about $50.

Denton was well represented at the oyster supper at Harmony on Thursday and Friday nights of last week.

Good Cheer Bible Class of the M. E. Sunday school will meet with Mrs. Mable Duffey and Mrs. Ora Carroll tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Warrington of Kennett Square were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Neal on Sunday evening.

The Willing Workers Class of the M. P. Church will hold a bake in Mr. Newnam's old store room on Saturday afternoon.

Miss Jane Bryant entertained several of her little friends at a party on Wednesday afternoon, the occasion being her sixth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Blake spent Sunday in Georgetown.

Mrs. Harriet Anderson returned on Tuesday to her home in Church Hill after spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. J. Kemp Stevens.

The Rector's Guild met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. M. M. Cochran. At that time plans were laid for a kitchen shower for the Parish House to be held October 15.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pyle and son, Billie, Mr. and Mrs. Gurnie Thompson and Miss Alice Wolf of Wilmington were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl White.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl White entertained at dinner on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pyle and son, Mr. and Mrs. Gurnie Thompson, Miss Alice Wolf, of Wilmington, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fifield.

Rev. T. C. Smoot is spending part of this week in Baltimore the guest of his two sons, Aubrey C. and Merrill C. Smoot, who are now students in the medical department of the University of Maryland.

Many Dentonians enjoyed the wonderful dahlias at Greensboro Gardens on Sunday. The display was much larger than last year, and the flowers were of unusual size and beauty. Visitors were there from all over the county and from Delaware.

Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson and their cousin, Miss Clara Stitt, of Columbus, Ohio, who have been visiting Mrs. Anderson's mother, Mrs. Mary Simmons, are spending a few days in Chestertown, prior to starting for their home on Monday next.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Irwin this week moved to their home recently purchased on the corner of Second and Randolph streets. Mr. S. G. Bye and family, who have been occupying the house, have moved into the house occupied by Mrs. J. Kemp Stevens. Mrs. Stevens will retain some of the rooms for the use of herself and Miss Ford.

GOLDSBORO

Next Sunday will be rally day and promotion in the Sunday school. Every member of the school is urged to be present. Vacation time is about over. Let the first Sunday in October be the day of rallying our forces together for the fall work. The pastor earnestly urges all persons to attend services Sunday, morning and night.

Mrs. Emma Martin, who has been spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. W. J. Murphy, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Russell at Owens.

Mrs. Myra Jackson of Denton spent the week end with Mrs. J. H. Schooley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sylvester visited Wilmington and Arlington, Saturday and Sunday.

Some of the town folks attended the all-day meeting at the Baptist church in Delaware, some the Barrets Chapel service and some heard the Bishop at Denton.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cortelyou of Rehoboth spent Sunday with Mrs. Robert Jarrell, Sr.

Mr. J. H. Roach entertained the Aid Society Wednesday.

One of the twin boys, Alfred of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Griffith, fell and broke his leg. He is in Easton hospital, and is getting along nicely.

Miss Nerva Wharten of Wilmington spent part of last week with her mother, Mrs. Ema Wharten.

ANDERSONTOWN

Mrs. William Chambers and son are in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. John Woodhall and son, Donald, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dennis of Denton, visited at F. D. Carpenter's home Sunday.

F. N. Melvin, who has been in poor health for some time is in Philadelphia consulting a specialist this week. His many friends are hoping for his speedy recovery.

Norwood Melvin met with a painful accident last Thursday eevening while driving with a party of young people and believing that the car had a flat tire, he stopped out on the running board while the car was in motion, his foot slipped and he was thrown under the car, the wheel passing over his left leg, bruising the knee and ankle, but fortunately not breaking the bone. However he will be laid up for some time.

Bennie Trice has a Ford truck purchased of the Preston Motor Company.

The canning season still continues with tomatoes of rather poor quality owing to unfavorable weather.

BURRSVILLE

Mrs. Mary E. Harvey Breeding

Mrs. Mary E. Harvey Breeding, aged 73 years, died at her home here on Tuesday evening, at nine o'clock, after an illness of over three years. She was a Christian and so long as she could, she attended church, and contributed of her means to every good cause. She was twice married, and to the first union five sons were born, four of whom are left to mourn the departure of mother. She is survived by her sons, Messrs. Randall Harvey, Osborne Harvey, Calvert Carroll Harvey, all of Philadelphia and Mr. Charles T. Harvey at home, also one granddaughter, Ruth Harvey of Philadelphia, and two grandsons, Arlington and Charles T., also of Philadelphia, one sister Mrs. James Breeding of Hickman. Mr. Jefferson Porter of Harrington, and Mr. Henry Porter of Greensboro are brothers. The funeral was held at Wesley M. E. Church on Sunday afternoon, Rev. E. N. Wright of Wesley Church and Rev. W. L. Jump of the Holiness church officiating. Interment was in Wesley cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. C. W. Stokes, C. N. Fountain, T. R. Jacobs, Jacob Price, John Parris and Henry Walters.

Miss Daisy Satterfield

Miss Daisy Satterfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Satterfield, died at the Emergency hospital in Easton on Thursday, September 25th. Her remains were brought to her home by undertaker Moore and her funeral was held in Wesley M. E. Church on Sunday at 11 o'clock. Interment was in adjacent cemetery, Revs. E. N. Wright and C. H. Conoway of the M. E. Church and W. L. Jump of the Holiness church, officiating.

The pall bearers were her cousins the Messrs. Haymon and Lee Butler and Leander Thomas. Besides her parents she is survived by one sister, Miss Nettie Satterfield of Tennessee, Mr. Clinton Satterfield of Philadelphia and Messrs. Cleveland and Earl, at home.

Mrs. Viola Hand of Philadelphia is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Billing and Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Dill all of Greensboro and Mr. and Mrs. Olas Smith and son, Edward of American Corner were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Blades.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Osborne Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Calvert C. Harvey and sons, all of Philadelphia, have been guests of Mr. Charles T. Harvey.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cheezum and son, Oliver of Collinsdale, Pa., are spending a few days at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Anstine Stafford and children of Vernon were guests of his sister, Mrs. A. T. Garret on Sunday.

Master James O. Stafford, spent last Friday with his grandmother, Mrs. Laura Hopkins at Vernon.

Miss Margaret Thawley, of Deneton, visited her parents, over the week end.

Mr. Jefferson Porter of Harrington has been visiting relatives here.

Messrs. J. Virgil Moore and William F. Phillip and Osborne Harvey were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Collison recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Thawley and two sons of Denton visited his parents here on Sunday.

Mrs. M. C. Stafford was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fountain had as their guests, Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. David Ellwanger of Greenwood, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Murphy of Andersontown.

Mr. John Carroll and children of near Hobbs were guests of relatives here on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. E. Murphy and son of Denton, were guests of relatives here recently.

PRESTON

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Alderson were among the number who heard Bishop McDowell preach in Denton M. E. Church, Sunday afternoon Sept. 28th.

Mrs. Walz, Pres., County Federation called the Executive Board of the Welfare Department to meet in Denton at the Court House Tuesday at 3 P. M.

Mrs. Orpha Outten and children have been guests of Mrs. J. P. Outten at the Parsonage for the past two weeks. They left for their home Deals Island, Wednesday

Mrs. Maggie Parker is visiting friends in Cambridge, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton of Pocomoke were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Willy.

The Rummage Sale will continue over next Saturday afternoon and evening, Oct. 4th, in Mr. Harry Hollis' store. The proceeds go to help build a wall along statt road beside "Bethesda Church Cemetery."

Mrs. Ralph Lednum returned from a visit of a week to her mother in Mardella.

Prof. and Mrs. Cummins were visitors in Baltimore over the week end.

Mr. Wm. H. Alderson the S. S. superintendent called a meeting at his home Monday, Sept.29th, to prepare for a Rally Day in the Sunday School.

A Teachers' Training Class was organized Sunday morning with six members.

The Ladies Aid met with Mrs. Celia Kelly Wednesday evening, Oct. 1st. After this meeting The Aid will resume its winter schedule by meeting in the afternoon.

Miss Deliette Noble returned to the Woman's College, Lutherville. Her mother accompanied her as far as Baltimore, where she will remain for several days.

Mr. Alvin Hubbert, the barber and pool-room proprietor will move to Salisbury to take charge of the tonsorial parlor in the New Hotel. Mr. Hubbert has advertised his house for sale on Main street.

Mrs. Wm. Bratton, of Vienna, is a guest of Dr. and Miss Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Douglas and son of Washington, D. C. are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fooks.

H- andzin, furlo nthoC e'.-alae :

Miss Mame Gallegher of Philadelphia is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gallegher.

The Preston Community Club will meet Oct. 10th to resume its years work. Mrs. J. T. Dennis, pres.; Mrs. Arthur Willey, sec.; Miss Edith Noble, treas.

The canneries are working just a few days a week. Tomatoes are very scarce.

Mr. A. W. Sisk and Mr. Lloyd Fooks are harvesting and shipping the last of the apple crop.

HARMONY

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ferrens and sons, spent Sunday with Mr. Alonza Ferrens in Queen Anne.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brodes and Mrs. Cora Todd visited the dahlia fields in Greensboro on Sunday, and brought home some beautiful specimens.

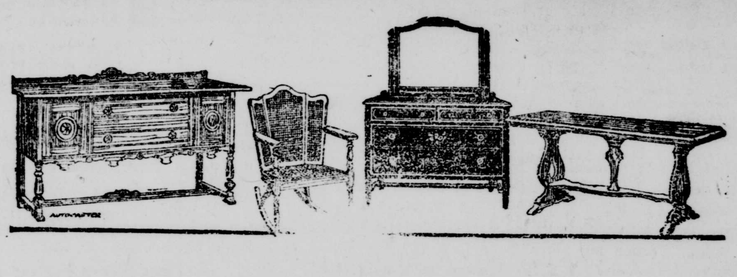
H. C. Todd and family and Mrs. McConnell spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cox at Laurel Grove.

The oyster supper held in the school house last Thursday and Friday evenings was quite a success, financially clearing one hundred and one dollars and fifty-five cents.

Dr. Duhadaway has been quite ill for several days.

Attended District Conference

Rev. Nadal C. Jones and W. I. Norris officially represented the Denton M. E. Church at a district conference at Chestertown on Wednesday. Bishop McDowell and Bishop Hadley delivered addresses both afternoon and evening.



Brighten the Home With New Furniture

THRITY housewives who are planning on brightening the home for winter months with new pieces of furniture will welcome this announcement of special prices on well known furniture. We want to clear our floors of many separate pieces to make room for special showing of suites. Consequently—Real Bargains for you.

Don't fail to see our display on both floors.

WE HAVE EVERYTHING FOR THE HOME

YOUR SATISFACTION IS OUR ADVERTISEMENT

M. K. NEWNAM

DENTON, - MARYLAND

Telephone—Store, 130; Residence 129.

WE ARE SETTLED IN OUR

NEW QUARTERS

Customers get the benefit of REDUCED EXPENSES

Never mind the street improvements. We are accessible from 3d street when 2nd street is closed.

We have a NASH SEDAN, good condition, bargain price

DEN-MAR MOBILE CO.

S. 2d Street Denton, Md

Congoleum Rug Sale

Oct. 6th to 11th Only

We have joined with the Manufacturers in offering the nationally advertised Congoleum Art Rugs at big price reductions.

9x12 size $14.95 THIS WEEK ONLY

Similar reductions on all sizes and on Congoleum by the yard.

Just in time for housecleaning—these beautiful easy-to-clean Rugs.

Nathan's Furniture Store

Cambridge Salisbury Seaford

MEN'S CLOTHING

Will Be Displayed

OCTOBER 3 AND 4

OVERCOATS

SUITS

Hats, Shoes, Shirts, Hosiery

and general up-to-date haberdashery for the young men and boys as well as for the more mature taste and figures.

FAULTLESS FITTING FINE FABRICS

Suits range in price from $12.50 to $50.00; for boys from $4.00 to $25.00.

During this display of autumn clothing, Roycroft the Taylor will be present in person with a large showing of fine fabrics for made-to-order clothing. We especially invite you and your friends to be present and see our phenomenal showing of

Men's and Boy's Clothing

OCTOBER 3 and 4

Long & Short

Federalsburg

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2929_scm3547-0325.jpg