A POLITICAL PROPHESY

Political prophecies always must be accepted with a degree reservation and with due regard to conditions existing at the time they are made. Developments, disclosures, and consequent changes in public attitude follow each other with such rapidity in politics that the safe bet one week becomes only a one-to-ten shot the next. Below, however, we present an analysis of the national political outlook as seen at this time by Mr. John H. Perry, who has at his disposal unusual sources of authentic information. Mr. Perry is President of the American Press Association, having relations with some eight thousand newspapers. He is President of The Publishers Autocaster Service Compay, dealing with approximately two thousand other papers, of which this is one. In addition, he is an important factor in the larger field of newspaperdom, being the reporter of several daily newspapers published throughout the country.

Mr. Perry's summation of the outlook for the Electoral vote is as follows—

COOLIDGE		La FOLLETTE		DAVIS
Colorado	6	California	13	Alabama	12
Connecticut	7	Idaho	4	Arizona	3
Delaware	3	Iowa	12	Arkansas	9
Illinois	29	Minnesota	12	Georgia	14
Indiana	15	Montana	4	Florida	6
Kansas	10	Nebraska	8	Kentucky	13
Maine	6	Nevada	3	Louisiana	10
Massachusetts	18	North Dakota	5	Maryland	8
Michigan	15	South Dakota	5	Mississippi	10
New Hampshire	4	Washington	7	Missouri	18
New Jersey	14	Wisconsin	13	North Carolina	12
New York	45			Oklahoma	10
Ohio	24		87	South Carolina	9
Pennsylvania	38			Tennessee	12
Rhode Island	5			Texas	20
Utah	4			Virginia	12
Vermont	4			West Virginia	8
Wyoming	3			New Mexico	3
	255				189

266 electoral votes are necessary to elect. Otherwise the contest goes into Congress.

Mr. Perry is a keen political observer. It will be interesting to retain these figures and to compare them with the result in November.

DELMARVIA TRAIL

New York to Florida via the "Delmarvia Trail," is a proposal over which the trade bodies of the Delaware, Maryland and Virginia peninsula and the cities of Wilmington, Del., and Norfolk, Va., will hold discussions during the next few weeks with the idea of making such a plan a realization.

Conceived by E. D. Prince and John F. Harlan, editors of the State of Delaware's new official book, arrangements are being made to give the idea wide publicity among tourists and business organizations in the Eastern, Southern and Northeastern States.

The first public discussion of the plans will be held in Norfolk next week.

The Delmarvia Trail would shorten the distance to the South by approximately 100 miles and the time of travel about five hours, is is pointed out, by diverting much of the traffic at Wilmington down the peninsula, across the Cape Charles-Norfolk ferries and connecting with the route now being used at Courtland, Va.

Motorists by taking the Delmarvia Trail may eat breakfast in Wilmington, lunch at the new Wicomico Hotel in Salisbury and dinner in Norfolk, meanwhile a distance of approximately 250 miles will have been covered over level roads and through a section of the country abounding in beauty.

A group of Wilmington and Eastern Shore advocates of the proposed trail will go to Norfolk next week to attend a hearing of protest by the Portsmouth-Norfolk Freight Traffic Commission against the present ferry charges of the Pennsylvania Railroad in transporting automobiles from Cape Charles to Norfolk.

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGES OF THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR CAROLINE COUNTY STATE OF MARYLAND, OCTOBER, 1924.

After the selection of our body of twenty-three members for the Grand Inquest of Caroline County, State of Maryland and your selection of Isaac H. Morris, foreman, we retired and further organized by selecting Joseph H. Carroll, secretary and J. Frank Lednum, asst. secretary, preceeding at once upon the duties imposed upon us, trying to perform in an impartial manner.

As we bring our work to a close we find we have examined sixty-four witnesses, found twenty-nine presentments and brought in twenty-nine true bills of indictment.

The committee appointed to visit the jail was composed of Messrs. Thomas W. Jones, T. E. Heather, and James Pippin and made the investigation and their report is hereto attached.

The committee of three, Messrs. W. P. Manlove, Lewis N. Kibler and William M. Garey, appointed as visitors of the County Home made their report, which is attached hereto.

We wish to extend our gratitude to the court, clerk of the court, sheriff, states attorney and other officers for their courtesy to our demands.

ISAAC H. MORRIS, Foreman,
JOSEPH CARROLL, Secretary,
J. FRANK LEDNUM, Asst. Sec.

TO THE GRAND JURY:

This committee appointed to inspect the Alms House wish to submit the following report:

We found 15 inmates quartered there as follows:

2 males; 1 female; whites; 7 females, 4 males colored: 1 baby boy colored about 18 months old.

The buildings are in good sanitary condition but need paint inside and out.

Lucille looking at Mary T. laughing.

Mary T.—What are you laughing at, Lucille?

Lucille—If you look in a mirror you will laugh too, wouldn't you, Mary?

Mary T. —I don't know, you better hand me a mirror and let me look first.

Mammoth Floral Display

A mammoth floral display will be on exhibition Saturday night and Sunday at the Greensboro Baptist church. With flowers furnished by the Greensboro Gardens, Rev. Melvin G. Morris will reproduce in colored flowes "The Rock of Ages" and "The Cross of Calvary" with the appropriate words: "God is Love." This design, the first of its kind to be made in this section of the country, will be worth coming miles to see. This exhibition wll be on the inside of the church building and will require most of the space about the pulpit.

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENT

To the Legal Fraternity of Caroline County and to Whom it may concern:

Last September I advertised in the Denton Union for the assistance of a lawyer to represent me in the Pealiquor Canning Co. case Chancery 1565.

I stated in this advertisement that Mary Detwiler lost $680.00 in this case through perjury and misconduct of certain lawyers.

That up to this time, this statement has stood without question, and no attorney has offered to look into the matter to prove otherwise.

The Standard Rule in Legal Ethics, to uphold the honor of the court is as follows:

"Lawyers should expose without fear or favor before proper tribunals corrupt or dishonest conduct in the profession, and should accept without hesitation employment against a member of the bar who has wronged his client. The counsel upon the trial of a cause in which perjury has been committed owe it to the profession and to the public to bring the matter to the knowledge of the prosecuting authorities.

"The lawyer should aid in guarding the bar against the admission to the profession of candidates unfit or unqualified because deficient in either moral character or education. He should strive at all times to uphold the honor and to maintain the dignity of the profession and to improve not only the law but the administration of justice."

That the above being the rule, I hold every lawyer in Caroline County responsible for the wrong done Mary Detwiler and other defendants in this case. Furthermore, as a citizen of the county and for the good of the county, I object to any lawyer being allowed to practice in the court of Caroline, who fails to follow the above Rule in Legal Ethics.

In this Pealiquor Canning Co. case I have filed my objection to the ratification of the audit.

This audit shows that J. E. Elwanger lost large sums of money in the Pealiquor Canning Co. business, which I know to be fictitious losses and were obtained by corrupt practice and perjury, and was designed to be used through court against Mary Detwiler and myself and by the same methods of corrupt practice and perjury, I was to be proved a partner in the business and forced by the court to pay 50 per cent. of J. E. Elwanger's fictitious losses, with good sound money. He, J. E. Elwanger, never could prove these losses.

Therefore, I call this matter to the legal faculty of Caroline County and ask is there any one who will, at least, uphold the Honor of the Court of Caroline County, in this case. If so let me have your assistance. Write to me at Denton, Md.
