the debt damages costs and charges aforesaid as adjudged unto him in the said County Court of Talbot, as also for the sum of nine dollars and thirty five cents for his damages costs and charges by him sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid, by means of the prosecuting an appeal by the said Joseph Haskins before the said Court of Appeals, whereof the said Joseph Haskins is convict, as of record it likewise appeareth. And whereas also on the 27th day of October in the year 1824 command was given to you that of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the said Joseph Haskins, being in your bailiwick, you should cause to be made the debt, damages, costs and charges aforesaid, and that you should have those sums before the said Court of Appeals to be held at Easton on the last Monday of November then next, to be rendered unto the said Govert Haskins for the debt, damages costs and charges aforesaid. And that thereof you should not fail at your peril, and that you should have then and there that Writ. At which said last Monday of November in the year 1824, you made return thereof to the said Court of Appeals, that by virtue of the writ aforesaid to you directed, you had seized and taken in execution certain goods and chattels lands and tenements of the said Joseph Haskins, to wit, a tract or part of a tract of land called Kingston, containing 104 acres then occupied by Clark Billeter; also one other tract or parcel of land called Haskins's Discovery, adjoining or near the lands of William Mackey, containing 94 acres of land more or less; one Lot on Washington Street 37 feet front, running back 160 feet; one Lot on South Street near the corner, fronting on South Street 40 feet and running back 100 feet, adjoining the Lot of Nicholas Hammond Esquire; one other Lot on Goldsborough and Harrison Streets, containing about one acre, adjoining Bartons Lot; six and one third acres of land near the Town of Easton, being part of a tract of land called Lowndons; one negro woman called Mary and her two children, one a boy about 8 years of age, the other a girl 3 years old, in your bailiwick being to satisfy unto the said Govert Haskins the debt damages costs and charges aforesaid, in the said writ mentioned; which said goods and chattels lands and tenements remained in your hands unsold for want of buyers, so that the debt, damages costs and charges aforesaid you could not have as by the said writ you were commanded: Therefore you are hereby commanded that the said goods and chattels lands and tenements so as aforesaid taken you expose to sale and the money therefrom arising you have before the said Court of Appeals to be held for the Eastern Shore of the said State at Easton in Talbot County on the last Monday of November next to render unto the said Govert Haskins the debt damages, costs and charges aforesaid. Hereof fail not at your peril and have you then and there this Writ. Witness the Honorable John Buchanan Esquire Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals the 4th day of June 1827. Issued the 25th day of June 1827. Wm. James Barrott Clk

At which said last Monday of November, being the twenty sixth day of the same Month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven and the return day of the last aforegoing Writ of Venditioni Exponas, come into the Court of Appeals here the said Govert Haskins by his Attorney aforesaid, and the late Sheriff of Talbot County aforesaid to whom the said last aforegoing Writ was in form aforesaid directed, makes return thereof to the Court here thus endorsed, to wit. "Property this on hand for want of bidders. Edwd. N. Hambleton late Shff"

And be it further remembered that on the seventh day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight, the said Govert Haskins by William Hayward, Junior Esquire his Attorney, prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of Appeals here, ~~an alias~~ Writ of Venditioni Exponas in the words and figures and of the tenor following to wit. Maryland ss. The State of Maryland to Edward N. Hambleton Esquire, late Sheriff of Talbot County, Greeting. Whereas at a County Court begun and held at Easton in and for Talbot County on the second Monday of November in the year of our Lord 1824, a certain Govert Haskins by judgment of the same Court recovered against a certain Joseph Haskins, as well the sum of Eight hundred seventy nine dollars and thirty six cents current money a certain debt, as the sum of six dollars and fifty cents which in the said County Court was adjudged unto the said Govert Haskins for his damages which he had sustained as well by occasion of the detention of that debt as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended, whereof the said Joseph Haskins is convict, as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same County Court, brought before the Court of Appeals held for the Eastern Shore of the said State at Easton in Talbot County, by reason of errors alleged to have been therein manifestly appears. And forasmuch as it hath been adjudged in the said Court of Appeals at Easton aforesaid on the first Monday of June in the year of our Lord 1826 that the said Judgment given in form aforesaid be in all things affirmed and ratified, and that the said Govert Haskins might have execution against the said Joseph Haskins for as well the debt, damages, costs and charges aforesaid as adjudged unto him in the said County Court of Talbot, as also for the sum of nine dollars and thirty five cents for his damages, costs and charges by him sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the Judgment aforesaid, by means of the prosecuting an appeal by the said Joseph Haskins before the said Court of Appeals, whereof the said Joseph Haskins is convict, as of record it likewise appeareth. And whereas also on the 27th day of October in the year 1824, command was given to you that of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the said Joseph Haskins, being in your bailiwick, you should cause to be made ~~and levied~~ the debt damages costs and charges aforesaid, and that you should have those sums before the said Court of Appeals to be held at Easton on the last Monday of November then next, to be rendered unto the said Govert Haskins for the debt damages costs and charges aforesaid, and that thereof you should not fail at your peril and that you should have then and there that Writ. At which said last Monday of November in the year 1824, you made return thereof to the said Court of Appeals that by virtue of the Writ aforesaid to you directed you had seized and taken in execution certain goods and chattels, lands & tenements of the said Joseph Haskins, to wit, a tract or part of a tract of land called Kingston containing 104 acres, occupied by Clark Billeter; also one other tract or parcel of land called Haskins's Discovery, adjoining or near the lands of William Mackey, containing 94 acres of land, more or less; one Lot on Washington Street, 37 feet front running back 160 feet; one Lot on South Street near the corner, fronting on South Street 40 feet and running back 100 feet, adjoining the Lot of N. Hammond Esquire; one other Lot on Goldsborough & Harrison Streets, containing about one acre, adjoining Bartons Lot; six and one third acres of land near the
